Call to Worship and Opening Prayer (responsive)

Every day, our attention gets pulled in a hundred directions:

toward what's loud, what's urgent, what's easy to notice.

But Scripture invites us to choose, on purpose, what we set our minds on.

So we come this morning to practice that choosing:

To attend, in this hour, to the things God calls us to appreciate.

Open our eyes, Lord. Open our hearts.

Holy God, capture our attention and direct us to see and hold onto the things that you want us to contemplate.

Form us in this hour of worship that we may become more and more the people you call us to be.

Amen.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (responsive)

Gracious God,

you have shown us what is right and good, and still we look past it, we miss it.

We notice what's convenient before we notice what's true.

We reward what's impressive before we honor what's faithful.

We protect our own comfort before we pursue what's just.

Forgive us for the things we've failed to appreciate: the quiet kindnesses, the patient labor, the ordinary grace that surrounds us every day, unnoticed.

Forgive us, also, for appreciating the wrong things:

mistaking status for honor, noise for truth, comfort for peace.

Turn our attention, God. Redirect our focus. Help us to see and appreciate whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, may we think about these things.

Amen.

Declaration of Forgiveness (responsive)

Hear this good news!

God does not wait for us to find focus and clarity before God loves us, before God comes to us.

While we're still looking the wrong direction, Christ comes looking for us. While we're still confusing what matters with what merely glitters, Christ died and rose to make all things — including us — new.

Turn to see and believe this good news today:

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Thanks be to God.

Amen.

The Peace (responsive)

May the peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Response

Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost,
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
World without end. Amen. Amen.

Prayer for Illumination (responsive)

Holy Spirit, before a word of Scripture is read aloud, open something in us first.

Quiet the hundred other things competing for our attention, and make room for this one.

Let us hear, today, whatever is honorable — not as information to file away, but as a word that reshapes how we see and how we live.

Speak, Lord. Your servants are listening.

Amen.

Sermon

Whatever Is Honorable

Rev. Michelle D. Witherspoon

*Affirmation of Faith (responsive)

The apostle Paul says:

Summing it all up, friends, I'd say you'll do best by filling your minds and meditating on things true, noble, reputable, authentic, compelling, gracious—the best, not the worst; the beautiful, not the ugly; things to praise, not things to curse. Put into practice what you learned from me, what you heard and saw and realized.

Brothers and sisters:

whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just,
whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable,
if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise,
we will think about these things.
Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

*The Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host.
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayer of Dedication (responsive)

God of abundance, you give us so much to savor and appreciate.

We respond to your generosity with gratitude.

Receive the offering of our life and labor,
and bless it to advance whatever is honorable,
that those in our church, in our community, and in all the world,
would be able to see and appreciate how you are at work.
Amen.
