

Authorization for Disclosure of Clinical Information for Patients 18+ years or older

When you turn 18, TLC Pediatrics requires that you make a decision about who we can communicate with regarding your medical care. If you choose to allow your parent(s) to be involved in your healthcare, please write their names in section A on the authorization form. Even if you include your parents on this form, certain information is still protected by Massachusetts law, including but not limited to HIV/AIDS testing and treatment, mental health diagnosis and treatment, and drug or alcohol use (unless you are a danger to yourself or others). You may give specific consent for these sensitive items to be disclosed on the authorization form.

If you decide that you will not allow TLC Pediatrics to communicate with your parent(s) about your healthcare, indicate this by initialing section B on the authorization form. This means that no one but you will be allowed to call us and schedule or cancel appointments, request prescription refills or referrals, or pay any of your medical bills that are not covered by insurance. All interactions must be directly with you. Please make sure we have your phone number and address up to date in our system.

You are able to revoke/change your authorization at any time by putting your request in writing.

If you have any questions about this form and what it means, please ask us!
