Core Competencies:

- Spiritual Maturity: Has a deep personal faith in Jesus Christ. Actively engages in a personal relationship with Jesus Christ as Lord and practices spiritual disciplines of prayer, Bible study, and worship. Models humility, accountability, and servant leadership in all supervisory relationships.
- Ethics and Values: Consistently embodies appropriate behavioral choices in both stressful and non-stressful situations; practices the behaviors he/she advocates to others and carries himself/herself with integrity.
- Team Orientation: Demonstrates the ability to work well with a team; promotes the mission of the church and group goals ahead of personal agendas. He/she needs to be a healthy member of the Mt. Pleasant staff and encourage others.
- Supervising Work: Can supervise other staff and volunteers by setting clear expectations and directions; distributes workload appropriately, provides regular feedback about the ministries they oversee, and is able to handle/address conflicts in a timely manner.
- Creative: Implement fresh ideas, ministry updates, and be flexible to the needs of each generation of young people while always looking to strengthen the opportunities for spiritual growth for families and the next generation.
- Evangelistic & Missional: Engage in relational ministry beyond the walls of the church and seek to invite other young families to be a part of the ministries at Mt. Pleasant i.e: youth sports, school events, etc.
- Servant Minded: Lead by example and serve with humility at all costs, just as our Lord took on the mind of a servant, he/she should be willing to serve the families of Mt. Pleasant at all costs and put the ministries of the church before themselves.
- Communication: Be able to articulate a clear vision for the family ministries of Mt. Pleasant that are in line with the overall mission of the church; communicate effectively and clearly in front of others, especially youth and children. Communicate effectively and kindly with parents to build trust among the church body.
