

TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT

1 General

- 1.1 These Standard Terms of Engagement (Terms) apply to any current engagement and also to any future engagement, whether or not we send you another copy of them. We are entitled to change these Terms from time to time, in which case we will send you amended Terms. Our relationship with you is governed by New Zealand law and New Zealand courts have exclusive jurisdiction.

2 Professional Staff

- 2.1 Lisa Grant will be the barrister/solicitor who undertakes the work and has the overall responsibility for the services provided to the client.
- 2.2 In order to provide you with efficient advice and services and to provide the most cost-effective service, it may be that part, or all of your instructions will be delegated to other professionals in our firm.

3 Services

- 3.1 The services we are to provide for you (the Services) are outlined in our letter of engagement along with any further instructions that you provide to us in writing (or that we record in writing).

4 Communications

- 4.1 We will obtain from you contact details, including email address, postal address and telephone numbers. We may provide documents and other communications to you by email (or other electronic means). You will advise us if any of your contact details change.
- 4.2 We will report to you periodically on the progress of any engagement and will inform you of any material and unexpected delays, significant changes or complications in the work being undertaken. You may request a progress report at any time.
- 4.3 You agree that we may provide you from time to time with other information that may be relevant to you, such as newsletters and information bulletins. At any time you may request that this not be sent to you.
- 4.4 All meetings in person are strictly by appointment only and will be arranged at a place of mutual agreement.

5 Financial

- 5.1 Fees: The basis upon which we will charge our fees is set out in our engagement letter.

- a If the engagement letter specifies a fixed fee, we will charge this for the agreed scope of the Services. Work which falls outside that scope will be charged on an hourly rate basis. We will advise you as soon as reasonably practicable if it becomes necessary for us to provide services outside of the agreed scope and, if requested, give you an estimate of the likely amount of the further costs.
 - b Where our fees are calculated on an hourly basis, the hourly rate is $250.00 per hour. Time spent is recorded in six-minute units or part thereof rounded up to the next six minutes.
 - c Hourly fees may be adjusted (upwards or downwards) to ensure the fee is fair and reasonable to take into account matters such as the complexity, urgency, value and importance of the Services. Full details of the relevant fee factors are set out in Rule 9 of the Lawyers and Conveyancers Act (Lawyers: Conduct and Client Care) Rules 2008 (Rules).
- 5.2 Office Service Charge Fee (Administrative expenses): In addition to disbursements, we may charge a fee of $50.00 to cover out of pocket costs which are not included in our fee and which are not recorded as disbursements. These include items such as photocopying and printing, postage and phone calls.
- 5.3 GST: Our services will usually attract Goods and Services Tax (GST). If this is the case, GST is payable by you on our fees and charges.
- 5.4 Invoices: We will send interim invoices to you, usually monthly, and on completion of the matter, or termination of our engagement. We may send you invoices more frequently when we incur a significant expense or undertake a significant amount of work over a shorter period of time.
- 5.5 Payment: Invoices are payable within 14 days of the date of the invoice, unless alternative arrangements have been made with us.
- a If you have difficulty in paying any of our accounts, please contact us promptly so that we may discuss payment arrangements.
 - b If your account is overdue we may:
 - i require interest to be paid on any amount which is more than 14 days overdue, calculated at the rate of 2 % per month.
 - ii stop work on any matters in respect of which we are providing services to you;
 - iii recover from you in full any costs we incur (including on a barrister/client basis) in seeking to recover the amounts from you, including our own fees and the fees of any collection agency.
 - c Payment may be made by deposit into our following bank account; details are available upon request.
- 5.6 Legal Aid: If you apply for and are eligible for assistance from Legal Aid, we will submit invoices in relation to your grant of aid to the Legal Services Commissioner and provide you, if you request, with copies. The Legal Services Commissioner will write to you about any conditions or repayment obligations that you may have in relation to the grant of legal aid and your rights as an applicant or recipient of legal aid. You should be aware at this time that legal aid is not always free. You should read these letters carefully and keep them for later reference. You must let the Legal Services Commissioner know if there is any change in your and your partner's contact details, employment status, family circumstances or financial details.

- 5.7 Estimates: You may request an estimate of our fee for undertaking the Services at any time. If possible we will provide you with an estimate (which may be a range between a minimum and a maximum amount or for a particular task or step). An estimate is not a quote. Any significant assumptions included in the estimate will be stated and you must tell us if those assumptions are wrong or change. We will inform you if we are likely to exceed the estimate by any substantial amount. Unless specified, an estimate excludes GST, disbursements and expenses.
- 5.8 Third Parties: Although you may expect to be reimbursed by a third party for our fees and expenses, and although our invoices may at your request or with your approval be directed to a third party, you remain responsible for payment to us in accordance with these Terms if the third party fails to pay us.

6 Confidentiality and Personal Information

- 6.1 Confidence: We will hold in confidence all information concerning you or your affairs that we acquire during the course of acting for you. We will not disclose any of this information to any other person except:
- a to the extent necessary or desirable to enable us to carry out your instructions; or
 - b as expressly or impliedly agreed by you; or
 - c as necessary to protect our interests in respect of any complaint or dispute; or
 - d to the extent required or permitted by law.
- 6.2 Confidential information concerning you will as far as practicable be made available only to those within our firm who are providing legal services for you.
- 6.3 Personal information and Privacy: In our dealings with you we will collect and hold personal information about you. We will use that information to carry out the Services and to make contact with you about issues we believe may be of interest to you. Provision of personal information is voluntary but if you do not provide full information this may impact on our ability to provide the Services. Subject to clause 5.1, you authorise us to disclose, in the normal course of performing the Services, such personal information to third parties for the purpose of providing the Services and any other purposes set out in these Terms.
- 6.4 We may disclose your name and address to third parties such as credit agencies to perform a credit reference or to undertake credit management or collection processes if it is reasonable to do so.
- 6.5 The information we collect and hold about you will be kept at our offices and/or at secure file storage sites (including electronic and cloud file storage sites) elsewhere. If you are an individual, you have the right to access and correct this information. If you require access, please contact us.
- 6.6 Verification of identity: The Financial Transactions Reporting Act 1996 requires us to collect from you and to retain information required to verify your identity. We may therefore ask you to show us documents verifying your identity (such as a passport or driver's licence). We may retain copies of these documents. We may perform such other customer verification checks as to your identity and checks as to the source of any funds associated with any transaction to which the Services relate as we consider to be required by law.

7 Documents, Records and Information

- 7.1 We will keep a record of all important documents which we receive or create on your behalf on the following basis:
- a We may keep a record electronically and destroy originals (except where the existence of an original is legally important such as in the case of wills and deeds).
 - b At any time, we may dispose of documents which are duplicates, or which are trivial (such as emails which do not contain substantive information), or documents which belong to us.
 - c We are not obliged to retain documents or copies where you have requested that we provide them to you or to another person and we have done so, although we are entitled to retain copies for our own records if we wish to do so.
- 7.2 We will provide to you on request copies or originals (at our option) of all documents to which you are entitled under the Privacy Act 1993 or any other law. We may charge you our reasonable costs for doing this.
- 7.3 Where we hold documents that belong to a third party you will need to provide us with that party's written authority to uplift or obtain a copy of that document.
- 7.4 Unless you instruct us in writing otherwise, you authorise us and consent to us (without further reference to you) to destroy (or delete in the case of electronic records) all files and documents in respect of the Services 7 years after our engagement ends. We may retain documents for longer at our option. We may, at our option, return documents (either in hard or electronic form) to you rather than retain them. If we choose to do this, we will do so at our expense.
- 7.5 We own copyright in all documents or work we create in the course of performing the Services but grant you a non-exclusive licence to use and copy the documents as you see fit for your own personal or commercial use. However, you may not permit any third party to copy, adapt or use the documents without our written permission.
- 7.6 We take security of your personal data seriously and recognise my professional and legal obligations to protect your confidential and personal information and maintain your privacy interests.
- 7.7 We make frequent use of cloud-based online electronic storage, including Microsoft Office 365, Dropbox and Actionstep. Online cloud storage is never completely secure. If any of your information is especially sensitive or confidential, please let me know and we can discuss security protocols.

8 Compliance

- 8.1 We are obliged to comply with all laws applicable to us in all jurisdictions, including (but not limited to):
- a Anti-money laundering (AML) and countering financing of terrorism (CFT) laws; and
 - b Laws relating to tax and client reporting and withholdings.
- 8.2 We may be required to undertake customer due diligence on you, persons acting on your behalf and other relevant persons such as beneficial owners and controlling persons. We may not be able to begin acting, or to continue acting, for you until that is completed.
- 8.3 To ensure our compliance and yours, we may be required to provide information about you, persons acting on your behalf or other relevant persons to third parties (such as government agencies). There may be circumstances where we are not able to tell you or such persons if we do provide information.
- 8.4 Please ensure that you and/or any of the persons described previously are aware of and consent to this. It is important to ensure that all information provided to us is accurate. If the information required is not provided, or considered by us to be potentially inaccurate, misleading, or in contravention of any law, we may terminate or refuse to enter into an engagement.

9 Conflicts of Interest

- 9.1 We are obliged to protect and promote your interests to the exclusion of the interests of third parties and ourselves as set out in the Lawyers and Conveyancers Act (Lawyers: Conduct and Client Care) Rules 2008 (Rules). This may result in a situation arising where we have a conflict of interest.
- 9.2 We have procedures in place to identify and respond to conflicts of interest or potential conflicts of interest. If a conflict of interest arises we will advise you of this and follow the requirements and procedures set out in the Rules. This may mean we cannot act for you further in a particular matter and we may terminate our engagement.

10 Duty of Care

- 10.1 Our duty of care is to you and not to any other person. We owe no liability to any other person, including for example any directors, shareholders, associated companies, employees or family members unless we expressly agree in writing. We do not accept any responsibility or liability whatsoever to any third parties who may be affected by our performance of the Services or who may rely on any advice we give, except as expressly agreed by us in writing.
- 10.2 Our advice is not to be referred to in connection with any prospectus, financial statement, or public document without our written consent.
- 10.3 Our advice is opinion only, based on the facts known to us and on our professional judgement, and is subject to any changes in the law after the date on which the advice is given. We are not liable for errors in, or omissions from, any information provided by third parties.

- 10.4 Our advice relates only to each particular matter in respect of which you engage us. Once that matter is at an end, we will not owe you any duty or liability in respect of any related or other matters unless you specifically engage us in respect of those related or other matters.
- 10.5 Unless otherwise agreed, we may communicate with you and with others by electronic means. We cannot guarantee that these communications will not be lost or affected for some reason beyond our reasonable control, and we will not be liable for any damage or loss caused thereby.

11 Limitations on our Obligations or Liability

- 11.1 To the extent allowed by law, our aggregate liability to you (whether in contract, tort, equity or otherwise) in connection with our Services is limited to the amount available to be payable under the Professional Indemnity Insurance held by the firm.

12 Professional Indemnity Insurance and Fidelity Fund

- 12.1 We hold professional indemnity insurance that meets or exceeds the minimum standards specified by the law society. We will provide you with particulars of the minimum standards upon request.
- 12.2 As a Sole Practitioner we are not covered by the Lawyers' Fidelity Fund. The Lawyers Fidelity Fund does not provide any cover in relation to a Sole Practitioner as a sole Practitioner not hold clients' funds.

13 Termination

- 13.1 Where you give us instructions, and we rely on that instruction in something we do, you may not revoke that instruction. Subject to this, you may terminate our retainer at any time.
- 13.2 We may terminate our retainer in any of the circumstances set out in the Rules including the existence of a conflict of interest, non-payment of fees, and failure to provide instructions.
- 13.3 We may also terminate our engagement at any time if:
- a You misrepresent or fail to disclose to us relevant facts;
 - b You mislead or deceive us in a material respect;
 - c You adopt a course of action that we believe may be inconsistent with our professional obligations; or
 - d We consider that a conflict of interest has arisen.
- 13.4 If our retainer is terminated you must pay us all fees, disbursements and expenses incurred up to the date of termination and we may retain your files until our invoices are paid.

14 Feedback and Complaints

- 14.1 Client satisfaction is one of our primary objectives and feedback from clients is helpful to us. If you would like to comment on any aspect of the service provided by us, including how we can improve our service, please contact the Director responsible for your business, Lisa Grant.
- 14.2 If you have any concerns or complaints about our services, please raise them as soon as possible with the person to whom they relate. They will respond to your concerns as soon as possible. We will inquire into your complaint and endeavour in good faith to resolve the matter with you in a way that is fair to all concerned.
- 14.3 If you are not satisfied with the way we have dealt with your complaint the New Zealand Law Society has a complaints service to which you may refer the issue. You can call the 0800 number for guidance, lodge a concern or make a formal complaint. Matters may be directed to:

Client Care and Service Information

The following information is as set out in the Lawyers and Conveyancers Act (Lawyers: Conduct and Client Care) Rules 2008

Whatever legal services your lawyer is providing, he or she must-

- Act competently, in a timely way, and in accordance with instructions received and arrangements made.
- Protect and promote your interests and act for you free from compromising influences or loyalties.
- Discuss with you your objectives and how they should best be achieved.
- Provide you with information about the work to be done, who will do it and the way the services will be provided.
- Charge you a fee that is fair and reasonable and let you know how and when you will be billed.
- Give you clear information and advice.
- Protect your privacy and ensure appropriate confidentiality.
- Treat you fairly, respectfully, and without discrimination.
- Keep you informed about the work being done and advise you when it is completed.

- Let you know how to make a complaint and deal with any complaint promptly and fairly.

The obligations lawyers owe to clients are described in the Rules. Those obligations are subject to other overriding duties, including duties to the courts and to the justice system.

If you have any questions, please visit www.lawsociety.org.nz or call 0800 261 801.

Capacity and Experience in Performing the Services

Lisa Grant was admitted as a barrister and solicitor in 2015. She has worked in numerous fields of litigation since 2015 with a focus on criminal law since 2018. Lisa has achieved PAL 2 status with legal aid and is a Family Lead Provider.

Advocacy Experience as a Barrister

Lisa Grant has acted in court almost exclusively as a criminal and family barrister and solicitor since 2018.

Disadvantage from not having an Instructing Lawyer Retained

These will depend upon the circumstances of the individual case and can differ significantly. These matters can be discussed and covered in writing in our letter of engagement.

Direct Instructions

We have been granted approval by the New Zealand Law Society to take direct instructions from clients and therefore we do not require an instructing solicitor when we act for clients, unless; we are prohibited from doing so by the rules of conduct and client care or we consider that in all the circumstances it would be in the client's best interests or in the interests of justice for an instructing solicitor to be retained.
