January 1: The Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God A Holy Day of Obligation

In celebrating the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, we are honoring not only Mary, who was chosen to bear God Incarnate, but we are also honoring our Lord, who is fully God and fully man.

To call her by her title "Mother of God" is the highest honor we can give to Mary. Just as on the Feast of the Nativity we recognize Jesus as the "Prince of Peace," on the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God we recognize Mary as the "Queen of Peace."

DECEMBER 28, 2025: The Feast of the Holy Family - This feast day honors Jesus, the Blessed Mother, and St. Joseph as the holiest of families, and therefore a model for all Christian families. They were holy because they placed God at the center of their family life, they loved and sacrificed for one another, and they radiated that love to others.

May you continue to grow in appreciation and love for each member of your family, whether you live with them or not.

Merry Fourth Day of Christmas! As the joy of Christmas continues to unfold, the Church invites us today to contemplate the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. In doing so, we are not escaping into an idealized or sentimental image of family life; rather, we are looking honestly and prayerfully at what family is truly called to be in God's plan.

Family life is essential to every society. When family life is weakened or devalued, communities begin to unravel. Yet family is more than blood ties or shared DNA. It is not merely a natural or biological reality. Family is a vocation—a daily work of love that requires effort, sacrifice, patience, forgiveness, and grace. Mutual support, care, and self-giving love are the hallmarks of a true family. God does not leave us without guidance. He gives us concrete examples of what family life looks like when it is rooted in faith. Above all, He gives us the Holy Family.

The Word of God and the Life of the Family - Today's readings form a beautiful tapestry of family life lived in fidelity to God. • Sirach reflects on the Fourth Commandment: "Honor your father and your mother." Parents are entrusted with a sacred role that comes directly from God. They are called to reflect the love of God the Father—patient, faithful, and merciful. Children, in turn, are called to honor, respect, and care for their parents, even into their old age. This is not always easy, but it is holy work. For many of us, caring for aging parents becomes a most profound way of living out our faith.

• Psalm 128 praises the blessings that flow from a family rooted in reverence for the Lord. It reminds us that trust in God bears fruit not only in our personal lives but in our homes.

• St. Paul's Letter to the Colossians gives us one of the most powerful descriptions of Christian family life. He begins by reminding us who we truly are: "God's chosen ones, holy and beloved." Before we are spouses, parents, children, siblings, or grandparents, we are members of God's family. Because of that identity, Paul urges us to clothe ourselves with:

Heartfelt mercy • Kindness • Humility • Meekness • Patience

Notice that every one of these virtues is outward-looking. They are not about self-importance or control but about loving the other more than oneself. Paul challenges us to "bear with one another." This means more than tolerating one another. It means carrying one another—helping shoulder burdens, offering support in weakness, and sometimes stepping in so another does not have to carry the weight alone.

Forgiveness, Love, and Peace - Forgiveness is at the heart of every healthy family. We forgive because God has first forgiven us in Christ. That forgiveness must be spoken, not assumed. Love does not mean never having to say you're sorry; rather, love demands humility, repentance, and reconciliation. Paul then speaks of love—agape—as the bond that holds everything together. This self-giving, unconditional love is what makes families whole. Without it, even the best intentions fall apart. Peace, or shalom, is another essential mark of family life. Peace does not mean the absence of disagreement. It means choosing understanding over resentment, reconciliation over division, and unity over pride. Gratitude, too, is essential. How often do we truly thank our family members—not just for gifts or favors, but for who they are? Perhaps one concrete way to live today's feast is to express that gratitude intentionally, even in writing.

The Word of Christ at Home - Paul's instruction to "let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly" is a call for families to be rooted in Scripture—not as an abstract idea, but as a living reality. When the Word of Christ shapes our thoughts, words, and actions, it transforms our homes. Families are also called to celebrate together—praying, singing, and rejoicing in God's goodness. These shared moments build communion and create memories that bind hearts together.

Whatever we say or do, Paul reminds us, should be done in the name of the Lord Jesus. A simple question can guide us daily: What would Jesus do? When we live with that awareness, our family life becomes an act of worship.

Roles Rooted in Mutual Love - Paul's words about spouses and children are best understood through the lens of mutual love and service. Marriage is meant to reflect Christ's love for the Church—a love marked by sacrifice, fidelity, and tenderness. Parenthood and childhood, too, are relationships grounded in listening, respect, and care, not domination or discouragement. Obedience, at its root, means to listen. Children listen and respond in love; parents guide without crushing the spirit of their children. When love and respect guide the family, obedience becomes life-giving rather than burdensome.

The Holy Family: A Real Family - The Gospel reminds us that the Holy Family was not spared hardship. They fled as refugees into Egypt, trusting God amid fear and uncertainty. Holiness does not mean a life without struggle. It means faithfulness within struggle. The Triune God Himself is a communion of love. The Son of God chose to be born into a human family. In doing so, God forever sanctified family life and called every family to be a living sign of His love in the world.

A Question for Prayer and Action - As we celebrate this Feast of the Holy Family, let us ask ourselves:

- How can the life of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph strengthen my relationships with my family?
- Do I recognize that holiness includes struggle, patience, and perseverance?
- What concrete action can I take today to build peace, forgiveness, gratitude, and love in my family or community?

May the Holy Family bless our homes, heal our wounds, and teach us to love as God loves—faithfully, generously, and without fear.

The month of January is dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus.

"In the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those that are in heaven, on earth and under the earth" (Phil 2:10). Christ's name is chosen in heaven, and the Angel Gabriel announces it when he informs the Blessed Virgin of the incarnation: "Behold thou shalt conceive in thy womb and shalt bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus." The name itself means, "savior." It is in Jesus' name that we pray to the Father with assurance of being heard. In His name the Church administers all sacraments, offers prayers and blesses homes, the fields, and the sick. In the name of Jesus, evil spirits are cast out, and the Church assures us that whoever calls upon Jesus' name will be saved. Finally, at the end of our earthly lives, it is in Jesus' name that Church asks "Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord."

Celebrating the Epiphany of the Lord

The Feast of the Epiphany celebrates the arrival of the three Magi who came to worship the Child Jesus shortly after His birth. Traditionally celebrated on January 6 but sometimes moved to Sunday, Epiphany will be observed on Sunday, January 4, 2025. It is a long-standing custom for Catholics to bless their homes on the Epiphany. Blessed chalk will be made available to parishioners for this purpose.

After the family has gathered, the head of the household reads aloud John 1:1–18. All then recite the Our Father, after which the Collect for the Epiphany (below) is read aloud:

“O God, who on this day revealed your Only Begotten Son to the nations by the guidance of a star, grant in your mercy that we, who know you already by faith, may be brought to behold the beauty of your sublime glory.”

Using blessed chalk, the head of the household then marks the lintel of the main door of the house with the inscription 20+C+M+B+25. The letters C, M, and B are the initials of the Magi, whose names are Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar. They also abbreviate the Latin phrase “Christus mansionem benedicat,” meaning, “May Christ bless the house.” The crosses represent the protection of the Precious Blood of Christ and the holiness of the Magi, who were sanctified by their adoration of the Infant Jesus. As the lintel is inscribed, the following prayer is said:

“The Three Wise Men ...

C Caspar ...

M Melchior ...

B and Balthasar, followed the star of God’s Son who became Man ...

20 Two-thousand ...

25 and twenty-five years ago ...

+ May Christ ...

+ bless our home ...

+ and remain with us ...

+ through the new year. ...

*Almighty God, incline Thine ear. Bless us and all who are gathered here.
Send Thy holy angel who will defend us, and fill with grace all who dwell here. Amen.”*

Catholic Recipe: St. Sylvester Punch

This New Year's Eve punch is a tradition in Austria, where the last day of the year is dedicated to holy Pope St. Sylvester, whose feast day we celebrate on December 31. St. Sylvester baptized Constantine the Great, thereby bringing about the dawning, not only of the New Year but of a new era. For this reason, the night before the New Year is called Sylvesterabend (Eve of St. Sylvester). The Sylvesterabend celebrations are similar to American New Year's Eve parties.

INGREDIENTS

One 750 milliliter bottle red burgundy
Equal amount of hot tea
12 whole cloves
Rind of one lemon, cut in slivers
2 tablespoons sugar
2 cinnamon sticks

DIRECTIONS

Pour the liquid into a pot and add the cloves, lemon rind, sugar, and cinnamon. Heat over low heat but do not allow to boil. Add the tea just before serving. Serve hot.

"Let us look to the Holy Family of Nazareth as an example for all Christian and human families. Each member of the family has to become, in a special way, the servant of the others."

-Pope St. John Paul II

The Holy Family

Today we celebrate the feast of the Holy Family: Jesus, Mary and Joseph. When God sent His Son Jesus into the world He wanted Him to come in a humble and quiet way.

He wanted Jesus to have a mother and an earthly father and be raised in a happy home.

God brings us into the world in families too. He wants us to have good and loving mothers and fathers to look after us and teach us. Our Lady and Saint Joseph are great examples for parents. They loved Jesus and kept Him safe and let Him grow and learn.

Jesus is an example to children, too! Love your father and mother, obey them and pray for them. Today is a good time to think of how your family can become more like the Holy Family, living in peace, joy and love. Can you think of a way to be more obedient, loving or generous with your family?

Saint Thomas Becket

December 29

THOMAS BECKET WAS BORN IN 1120 IN LONDON, ENGLAND, TO A FAIRLY WEALTHY FAMILY. HE RECEIVED A GOOD EDUCATION.

Translate this sentence...

HE WAS SENT TO PARIS TO STUDY, AND BEGAN WORKING FOR THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY.

Thomas, the archbishop here needs a clerk.

BECAUSE HE GOT ALONG WELL WITH KING HENRY II, HE WAS MADE CHANCELLOR.

I'll serve you to the best of my ability!

Tell the pope I want Thomas to be the archbishop.

WHEN THE ARCHBISHOP DIED, THOMAS TOOK HIS PLACE.

THOMAS TOOK HIS JOB SERIOUSLY, INSISTING ON THE CHURCH'S RIGHTS.

Your Highness, you are not in charge of the monasteries.

THE KING BECAME ANNOYED AND GRUMBLED ABOUT ARCHBISHOP THOMAS.

Who will rid me of this troublesome priest?

For the name of Jesus and the protection of the Church!

FOUR KNIGHTS WHO WANTED TO PLEASE THE KING WENT TO THE CATHEDRAL WHERE SAINT THOMAS WAS OFFERING MASS AND KILLED HIM.

SAINT THOMAS HAD LIVED A SECULAR (NOT VERY RELIGIOUS) LIFESTYLE UNTIL HE BECAME AN ARCHBISHOP. THEN HE UNDERSTOOD THAT HIS JOB WAS TO CARE OF SOULS, AND HE DIDN'T LET HIS FRIENDSHIP WITH THE KING GET IN THE WAY. GOD WANTS US TO HAVE GOOD FRIENDS, BUT REMEMBER HE IS OUR BEST FRIEND!
