

Ultimate Buy and Hold Strategy 70/30 U.S. International allocation

For over 25 years we have been updating our Ultimate Buy and Hold Strategy. The purpose of this study is to introduce investors to the long term impact of 10 different equity asset classes. According to many academics these 10 equity asset classes have a high probability of producing long term returns that are equal to or higher than the S&P 500. It is from this group of equity asset classes that we find the components for our Sound Investing Portfolios. This Table uses a 70/30 U.S./International allocation.
