THE VOICE OF BUSINESS

Chamber membership offers more than networking; it's a gateway to strategic marketing. By displaying promotional items within the chamber, businesses tap into a referral goldmine.

1) Credibility and Trust:

Showcasing your brand in the chamber signals reliability, building trust among members and visitors.

2) Referral Power:

Strategic placement of items prompts referrals. Visitors exposed to your brand are more likely to recommend your business when the need arises.

3) Lasting Impressions:

Promotional items leave a mark, reinforcing your brand in the minds of potential customers long after initial exposure.

4) Community Engagement:

Contributing to the chamber environment fosters camaraderie, strengthening relationships and leading to increased referrals.

In summary, displaying your promotional items at the Chamber offers a great way to boost your business, enhancing credibility, fostering referrals, and strengthening community ties.

ELKO AREA CHAMBER

Chamber Membership Spotlight

FireBox Stove & Fireplace Services LLC

In the heart of Elko County, nestled amidst the rugged beauty of Northeastern Nevada, lies a business dedicated to keeping homes warm and safe: FireBox Stove and Fireplace Service. Owned and operated by Collin and Daniela Taylor, FireBox has been a stalwart member of the community for five years, joining the Elko Area Chamber in 2020.

Motivation:

For Collin and Daniela, their motivation is clear: it's about more than just business; it's about community. "Providing our community with good reliable service is our driving force," says Collin. "Keeping safety as our priority for our customers is paramount. Burning a fire in your home is serious business."

Chamber Partnership:

The Elko Area Chamber plays a pivotal role in supporting FireBox. "They promote our company for events, sales, and help new residents find our business. Plus, they're very easy to work with."

Interesting Fact:

What sets FireBox apart is not just their expertise but their deep roots in Elko County. Collin and Daniela are both lifelong residents, now raising their own family here. FireBox operates uniquely as a mobile company, leveraging over 16 years of experience in the field to serve a wide area of Northeastern Nevada.

Community Engagement:

FireBox's commitment to the community extends beyond their services. "Yes, we accept chamber checks, We've had customers use them to help pay for the services provided. We've even purchased some checks ourselves to give to our customers as a thank you for supporting our business."

Advice for New Business Owners:

For those embarking on their entrepreneurial journey, Collin and Daniela have sage advice: "Customer service is the top priority," they emphasize. "Stay disciplined, be consistent, and be committed to finishing a job. Believe in yourself; you have an opportunity to make a difference."

In a region where winter's chill can be unforgiving, FireBox Stove and Fireplace Service stands as a beacon of warmth and safety, driven by a passion for community and a commitment to excellence. As they continue to serve Elko County and beyond, their dedication remains unwavering, ensuring that every hearth is aglow with both fire and fellowship.

BEHIND SHERMAN STATION

1405 Idaho Street

Last April, as part of National Rx Take Back Day, PACE Coalition and the Elko County Sheriff's Office collected 54 pounds of unused medication, contributing to the more than two tons collected in Nevada and the 332 tons collected nationally.

Removing unused medication from homes ensures that they won't pose a safety risk to family members or to visitors who may be struggling with substance use.

On Saturday, April 20th, you can help again by bringing your unused or expired medication to our collection box behind Sherman Station.
