On-Target Cleaning Hits the Mark in Elko

This month, the Elko Area Chamber proudly shines the spotlight on On Target Cleaning, a locally owned business dedicated to promoting healthier living through professional cleaning services. In business for three years and a Chamber member since 2023, On Target Cleaning has quickly made a name for itself in the Elko community.

A Mission of Health and Service

At the heart of On Target Cleaning is a clear and impactful mission: "Helping others live a clean and healthy lifestyle." Whether it's a residential refresh or a commercial deep clean, owner Melinda Cauley and her team approach each job—big or small—with care, professionalism, and attention to detail. Their dedication to quality service and cleanliness reflects a genuine desire to improve their clients' daily lives.

Strengthening Community Connections Through the Chamber

Since joining the Chamber, On Target Cleaning has valued the visibility and reputation that comes from being part of a larger network of local businesses. "We appreciate the Elko Chamber's support in building our business in reputable advertising," says Cauley. This partnership has helped On Target Cleaning grow steadily while staying true to their roots in community service.

A Fun Fact from the Field

What sets On Target Cleaning apart? Their "can-do" attitude. "There is no job too big or too small," Melinda shares—a motto that speaks to the flexibility and commitment the business brings to every client.

Chamber Checks and Future Considerations

At this time, On Target Cleaning does not accept Chamber Checks as a form of payment. However, their involvement in the Chamber network continues to contribute to a stronger, more connected business community here in Elko.

Words of Wisdom for New Businesses

Melinda offers this simple but wise advice for those just starting out: "Start small and achieve success through steady growth." Her words reflect the careful, sustainable path On Target Cleaning has taken—one rooted in consistency, service, and trust.

On Target Cleaning is a shining example of how passion and persistence can lead to business success. We're proud to have them as part of the Elko Area Chamber and look forward to seeing their continued growth and impact in our community.

Don't let our name fool you

We're not big. We're not flashy.

But we are deeply rooted, delightfully warm, and gently welcoming.

If you have an aging parent, a retired neighbor, or a loved one who longs for a place to belong—
we might be just what they need.

What we offer:

- A caring community where names are remembered and stories matter
- A place to reflect, grow, and feel deeply connected
- Sermons that speak to real life—woven with scripture, humor, and grace
- Friendship across generations, with a good potluck thrown in now and then

We may be small, but we are mighty in heart.

Come for the peace. Stay for the people.
