Spotlight

Bringing Beauty to Everyday Life: Kristi Lyn Glass LLC

This month, the Elko Area Chamber proudly shines the spotlight on Kristi Lyn Glass LLC, a creative business that has been delighting the community with unique, handcrafted designs since joining the Chamber in 2010. Owner Kristi Lyn has lived in Nevada since 1996 and continues to bring originality, beauty, and functionality to her work.

A Mission of Creativity & Joy

The driving force behind Kristi Lyn Glass LLC is Kristi's passion for invention and artistry. Motivated by the desire to design products that are both practical and uplifting, she creates items that bring joy and beauty into everyday life. Her work reflects a balance of purpose and creativity, making her pieces both useful and meaningful.

Chamber Partnership & Support

Kristi credits the Elko Area Chamber with playing a vital role in supporting her business over the years. "The Chamber advertises my creations and events online and via email; it drives potential customers to my website, sells my creations in its gift shop, provides meeting space for my presentations, and creates opportunities for me to meet other Chamber members and share what I do with them," she explains. This multifaceted support has helped her grow her reach locally and beyond.

An Interesting Development

An exciting new chapter is unfolding for Kristi Lyn Glass LLC: Kristi recently launched her prayer bead product line onto a dedicated website, prayerwithbeads.com. This launch coincided with the release of guided prayer videos designed for use with her handcrafted prayer beads, offering a new way for people to connect with her meaningful creations.

Chamber Checks

At this time, Kristi Lyn Glass LLC does not accept Chamber Checks as a form of payment. However, her active involvement in Chamber activities and contributions to its programs strengthen both her business and the larger Chamber community.

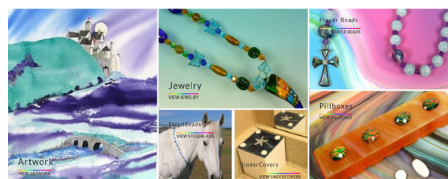

Advice for New Business Owners

Kristi offers thoughtful advice for entrepreneurs considering their next step: "Join the Chamber! It adds legitimacy to your business in the eyes of local customers. It also advertises your business to the wider world. Networking with Chamber members is an excellent way to make connections and work together to promote each other's businesses."

Kristi Lyn Glass LLC is a shining example of how creativity, innovation, and community involvement can lead to lasting success. The Elko Area Chamber is proud to have Kristi as a member and looks forward to seeing the continued growth of her business and her inspiring contributions to the community.

Nevada Rural Housing does not originate mortgage loans. Eligibility is determined by licensed lenders approved to offer the programs. Participating lenders are responsible to follow all program and loan agency guidelines. Loan rates vary based on program, loan type and amount of assistance provided. Not all applicants will qualify. MCC applicants should consult their own tax advisor or the IRS for questions regarding the MCC tax credit benefit. This is not an offer to lend money or solicit a mortgage application. A first-time buyer has not owned a home in the past 3 years. Title 38 of the Code of Federal Regulations defines a veteran as "a person who served in the active military, naval, or air service and who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable".

Meet Lauryn Winn

PACE Coalition's New Executive Director

Lauryn Winn of Elko has been selected to replace Laura Oslund as the executive director of PACE Coalition, a substance use prevention and wellness coalition serving Elko, Eureka, and White Pine counties. Oslund, who replaced founding director Catherine McAdoo in 2016, ran the nonprofit until she stepped down in late May. The board of directors elevated Winn to the position in June.

Winn joined PACE Coalition in December of 2021 and has since assumed increased responsibilities within the organization. She is stepping into her new role during challenging times. Like other Nevada prevention coalitions and federally funded programs, PACE Coalition's funding for the new fiscal year has faced significant cuts.

Winn is committed to the success of PACE Coalition. In the new fiscal reality, the organization will need to rely on more than federal and state grants to sustain operations and will pursue donations and private grant opportunities.

The new director also plans to increase the nonprofit's presence at events throughout the tri-county area. "It's important for PACE to 'show face' in the communities it serves," Winn said. In addition to attending community events, PACE Coalition provides after-school programs at Southside Elementary School, educating students about tobacco, vaping, and staying healthy, and provides evidence-based prevention programs such as Too Good for Drugs, Lifeskills, Girls Circle, and Boys Council in Elko, Eureka, and Ely schools.

PACE also offers free brochures on health-related topics like alcohol, tobacco, and drugs as well as other matters such as diabetes, pregnancy, child-rearing, and bullying prevention. It maintains a directory of social, health, and behavioral service providers in Northeastern Nevada. Other services include distribution of free naloxone, the opioid overdose reversal drug, and the provision of naloxone training to organizations. PACE Coalition's certified car seat installer provides free infant and child car seats to parents and guardians upon referral from other agencies.

Anyone wishing to help PACE continue its mission to keep children, families, and individuals healthy and drug free can donate by contacting bookkeeper@pacecoalition.org or clicking the yellow donate button on right hand column of PACE Coalition's home page at www.pacecoalition.org.

PACE Coalition is located at 429 Court Street, Suite 2, in Elko.
