

Founded in 1973, Costume Society of America (CSA) the Costume Society of America unites scholars, creators, educators, and advocates to preserve, explore, and share global dress practices through innovative research, publication, design, and community engagement. CSA members participate in regional events and national symposia, and they contribute to and benefit from our biannual journal Dress and monthly electronic newsletter CSA e-News.

Membership Registration

New Member

Renewing Member

NAME

ADDRESS LINE 1

ADDRESS LINE 2

CITY/STATE/ZIP

COUNTRY

PHONE

E-MAIL

Membership in CSA includes: one copy of each bi-annual journal; monthly e-newsletter; meeting attendance at member rates; voting privileges; CSA grants and awards eligibility; discount on CSA series publications. Additional benefits and/or restrictions are noted with each membership level below. For complete benefit listings, visit our website.

☐ CSA membership is contingent upon agreement to—and continued adherence with—our Community Guidelines; see our website for more details. By checking here, you agree to adhere to these guidelines.

☐ Standard $130

☐ Student $65 - Subsidized membership for full-time students. Qualifications will be assessed before this level of membership is activated.

☐ Emerging Professional $105 - Subsidized membership available for new professionals for up to three years after graduation. Qualifications will be assessed before this level of membership is activated.

☐ Retired/Emeritus $105 - Subsidized membership available for individuals who have retired or promoted to Emeritus status since their last renewal and have at least a five-year history of CSA membership. Qualifications will be assessed before this level of membership is activated.

☐ CSA Patron membership. The donation is tax deductible as a charitable contribution to the extent provided by law for federal income tax purposes.

☐ CSA Champion $195 - Includes $65 donation, which subsidizes the cost for one Student membership. The donation is tax deductible as a charitable contribution to the extent provided by law for federal income tax purposes.

☐ Museum/Association $260 - Available for non-profit organizations that have multiple staff or board of director members who would like to participate in CSA activities and services. This provides eligibility for two staff or board members to receive member benefits.

☐ Business Associate $380- Includes a listing in our Business Directory, 10% discount on advertising rates, and one free e-blast per year (a $200 value)

Please make your check payable to Costume Society America and mail it with this application to:

Costume Society of America, P.O. Box 852, Columbus, GA 31902-0852

To pay by credit card, visit <https://www.costumesocietyamerica.com/membership-benefits> or call toll free 800-CSA-9447.

NOTICE OF CONSENT: Application for membership in CSA constitutes consent for the Society to communicate with you via phone, e-mail, or mail.
CSA Federal Tax ID: 23-7362574

Are you affiliated with an institution such as a library or university that would like to provide public access to Dress through your online library database or physical copies in the stacks? This is available through a Library Membership subscription ($500-$714), which also provides eligibility for two members of your organization to receive member benefits. To subscribe, or for additional information, contact our publisher at subscriptions@tandf.co.uk.