Fr. Simon joined the Benedictine monastic community of Saint Meinrad in January 2015 and professed his solemn vows in 2019. He was ordained a priest in 2021. Known formerly as Tim Herrmann, Fr. Simon grew up in Findlay, OH, attending St. Michael the Archangel school through 8th grade. He is a 2006 graduate of Liberty Benton High School and he graduated from the University of Dayton, where he earned a bachelor's degree in communication management in 2010. At the monastery he is director of monastery vocations, donor relations and young adult engagement. For fun, he enjoys exercising, reading, community building via video games online, and drone cinematography. You can follow his work on Instagram at @drone.monks.
