Arizona Medical Association Welcomes Dr. Miriam Anand as New President

April 26, 2021 (Phoenix) – The Arizona Medical Association (ArMA) is pleased to announce the election of Miriam Anand, MD, as its 130th president. Dr. Anand has held various leadership positions within ArMA and will serve a one-year term as president.

Dr. Anand specializes in allergy/immunology and practices in Tempe, Arizona. She received her Doctor of Medicine from George Washington School of Medicine and Health Sciences in Washington, D.C. She completed her internship and residency in internal medicine at Mayo Graduate School of Medicine in Scottsdale, Arizona, and completed an allergy/immunology fellowship at the National Jewish Medical Center in Denver, Colorado.

Dr. Anand has a long-standing history of involvement in organized medicine. She was president of the Maricopa County Medical Society in 2014 and served as treasurer for ArMA prior to ascending to presidential leadership. She is a current member of the American Medical Association, the American College of Physicians, and the American College of Allergy, Asthma, and Immunology.

“On behalf of ArMA and our physician members, we congratulate Dr. Anand and officially welcome her to this new role as our president,” said Libby McDannell, CEO of ArMA. “She is the right person at the right time to lead physicians and their care of patients out of this pandemic and into a more resilient future.”

“I am honored to serve as president of this historic organization,” stated Dr. Anand. “As physicians, we have dedicated our lives to caring for our patients and I feel strongly that we must remain the most trusted source for medical information in all aspects of healthcare.”

Dr. Anand’s personal goals during her presidency include:

- A strong focus on strategic initiatives for the organization.
- Building upon the value of membership for Arizona physicians.
- Ensuring the physician voice remains an important healthcare resource.
