

Judge Gary A. Loxley has served as a judge on the Warren County Court since May 2013. A native of Greenville, Ohio, Judge Loxley began his legal career as an officer in the United States Army Judge Advocate General's Corps in 1988. After leaving active duty, he served for 14 ½ years as an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney in the Warren County Prosecutor's Office. He engaged in the private practice of law in Dayton from 1998-2002.

In 2018 Judge Loxley retired as a colonel from the United States Army Reserve Judge Advocate General's Corps. During his 36 years in uniform, he served in many command and leadership assignments, including as a Military Judge in the United States Army's 1st and 2nd Judicial Circuits.

Judge Loxley is active in several local, state, and national organizations, including veterans interest groups. In 2015, he established Warren County's first Veterans Treatment Court and serves as its Presiding Judge. The Chief Justice of the Ohio Supreme Court has appointed Judge Loxley to serve year-long assignments as a mentor judge in both Adams and Brown Counties and has periodically assigned him to serve as a visiting judge in Butler, Montgomery, and Greene Counties. He is a faculty member of the Ohio Judicial College, teaching various topics to Ohio judges throughout the state. For his significant contributions to the community after he was honorably discharged from military service, Judge Loxley was inducted into the Ohio Veterans Hall of Fame, Class of 2021.

Judge Loxley is a member of the Warren County (Past President) and Ohio State Bar Associations, Association of Municipal and County Judges of Ohio, and the Ohio Judicial Conference. He is admitted to practice before the Ohio Supreme Court, the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, the United States Army Court of Criminal Appeals, the United States Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces, and the United States Supreme Court.

Judge Loxley and his wife Jennie live in Clearcreek Township and are the parents of four grown children and have six grandchildren.
