

NORTH OLYMPIC PENINSULA Energy Futures Conference

November 2-4, 2022

7 Cedars Hotel & Casino, 270756 US-101, Sequim, WA 98382

Co-hosted by North Olympic Development Council and Pacific Northwest National Laboratory

DAY 1

Wednesday, November 2

8:30 am	Check-in and Breakfast	12:30 pm	Lunch
9:00 am	Welcoming Remarks Background on Energy Futures Initiative Meeting Goals Equity Framing Rural Success Stories: Communities Planning for Resilience	1:10 pm	Tribal Energy Goals Panel and Q&A Tribal representatives discuss their energy challenges, projects, and goals
9:50 am	Foundational Knowledge of Energy Systems	2:00 pm	Emission Reduction Panel and Q&A Planning for EV infrastructure, reducing vehicle miles traveled, energy efficiency and renewable energy opportunities
10:10 am	Overview of the Olympic Peninsula Energy System: Transmission, distribution, and customer/third party	2:50 pm	Break
10:40 am	Break	3:00 pm	Economic Impact Panel and Q&A Economic considerations for energy projects, local energy co-generation, local businesses using solar
10:50 am	Grid Reliability Panel and Q&A Energy system overview of the North Olympic Peninsula – what causes energy outages, and opportunities to make the grid more reliable	3:50 pm	Q&A/Check-in Before Proceeding
11:40 am	Emergency/Disaster Resiliency Panel and Q&A Energy resilience plays a key role in effective emergency response and recovery during a disaster – current vulnerabilities and gaps, what can be done to improve energy resilience during disasters.	4:00 pm	Facilitated Integration Session: Small Groups Goal: Integrated reflection on panel discussions based on challenges and opportunities
		5:00 pm	Reception

Conference Sponsored By

BATTELLE

CLEAN ENERGY
INSTITUTE
UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON STATE
DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

CITY OF SEQUIM

NORTH OLYMPIC PENINSULA Energy Futures Conference

November 2-4, 2022

7 Cedars Hotel & Casino, 270756 US-101, Sequim, WA 98382

Co-hosted by North Olympic Development Council and Pacific Northwest National Laboratory

DAY 2

Thursday, November 3

8:00 am	Breakfast	12:30 pm	Lunch
8:30 am	Key Themes from Day 1 Presented as Problem Statements	1:15 pm	Facilitated Session: Project/Concept Generation Continued
9:00 am	Technical Design Considerations Overview of key technologies and trends to consider in energy planning	4:00 pm	Goal: Developing out a project idea or concept Conclusion, Next Steps
10:00 am	Funding Opportunities Overview of funding opportunities and trends
11:00 am	Restate problem statement, ask if there are any problem statements missing, discussion
11:20 am	Break
11:30 am	Facilitated Session: Project/Concept Generation Goal: Refining the problem statement and generate project ideas and concepts that can address the problem statement

Conference Sponsored By

BATTELLE

CLALLAM COUNTY
PUD
Bringing Energy To Life™

CLEAN ENERGY
INSTITUTE
UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON STATE
DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

PUD
Jefferson County
Public Utility District

CITY OF SEQUIM

