

The Irish-American Journey Reimagined Through Time and Music

EMERALD STRINGS

"Spellbinding, world class..."

JazzCorner

"Natural artistry and an ability to dazzle."

The Irish Times

booking: +1-212-304-8767 | booking@gregoryharrington.com | www.gregoryharrington.com/emeraldstrings

Led by acclaimed violinist Gregory Harrington, Emerald Strings brings Ireland's musical heritage to life through a program that blends traditional Irish melodies, Americana, classical brilliance, and contemporary pop. Each performance fuses music with captivating storytelling, transporting audiences on a vibrant journey through Ireland's rich history and culture, right up to the present day. Experience the magic and soul of the Irish-American narrative through time and music!

Dublin-born violinist Gregory Harrington transforms classical, jazz, and traditional Irish music into fresh and original musical interpretations that have garnered worldwide critical acclaim. Renowned for his expressive lyricism, exquisite tone, and flawless musicianship, Harrington is a Billboard artist with six critically acclaimed albums who has showcased his artistry at iconic venues, including Carnegie Hall, the Royal Festival Hall, the United Nations, and the Oval Office. He continues to bring Irish music to audiences across the globe, performing at arts centers and theaters, appearing in concertos with orchestras such as the San Diego Symphony, the Mexico City Philharmonic, and the Janáček Philharmonic, and opening the St. Patrick's Day Parade live on NBC on 5th Avenue.

"His unique ability to juxtapose genres has led to a cross-cultural, wide-ranging appeal enjoyed by few artists and aspired to by many."

Sunday Independent

"This debut CD features a sultry 'Summertime' and a haunting performance of the theme from 'Schindler's List' that rivals Perlman's justly famous recording."

Newsweek

booking: +1-212-304-8767 | booking@gregoryharrington.com | www.gregoryharrington.com/emeraldstrings