"Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." (John 1,29)

The time for recognizing salvation has arrived, and it is John the Baptist who points to the Savior. "Behold the lamb of God." (John 1:29) How did Jesus become the Lamb who takes away the sins of the world? What about the thousands of other lambs sacrificed according to the Law of Moses? In the Law of Moses, the sacrificial Lamb symbolized atonement for individual sins through slaughter. (See Leviticus 4:28, 32-33; 5:6) Similarly, every year, at Yom Kippur (the Day of Atonement), the High Priest offered the blood of a sacrificial animal for his own sins and those of the people, but this ritual could not fully remove sins. It foreshadowed the true sacrifice that would satisfy God's wrath over human sins. For without blood there is no forgiveness or purification. (Cf. Hebrews 9:22) With Jesus, everything becomes different. His sacrifice is the ultimate fulfillment of all Old Testament sacrifice symbols, making it the decisive act of salvation. While the lambs were sacrificed annually without complete success, Jesus was sacrificed once and for all (ephah pax), and his sacrifice was effective. (Cf. 1 Peter 2:24; Hebrews 10:14)

By presenting Jesus as the Lamb, John the Baptist also revealed the profound truth of his Passion. It was on the cross, the altar of sacrifice, that Jesus fulfilled his mission as the Lamb of God. "For this happened so that the scripture passage might be fulfilled: 'Not a bone of it will be broken.'" And again another passage says: "They will look upon him whom they have pierced." (John 19:36-37) His death perfectly fulfilled the requirements of the Passover Lamb sacrificed for Israel's liberation. But Jesus is the Lamb who takes away not only Israel's sins but those of all people.

The Cenacle

The term cenacle comes from the Latin cenaculum or "dining room". It is a term often used to describe the Upper Room where Jesus met with His Apostles.

It is as old as the Church itself.

In today's Church the cenacle is described as a small faith-sharing group.

We invite you to join us at St. Mary's School on Tuesdays.

The next gathering will take place on Tuesday, January 20th

Come join us. Drop the kids off at CCD or come on your own.

We will gather together to grow in our understanding of our faith, to talk openly about living out our faith in our homes, our workplaces and the community, and to support each other in walking with Christ.

Come, be a part of a warm faith community

We hope to see you there.

Stewardship Servants

"Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb..." ISAIAH 49:5 God have given each of us different gifts. In order for God's plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do, and I have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different Stewardship! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Don't let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and become the saint that God is calling you to be.
