With Opened Bible / First Sunday of Lent

"But the serpent said to the woman: "You certainly will not die! No, God knows well that the moment you eat of it your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods who know what is good and what is evil."

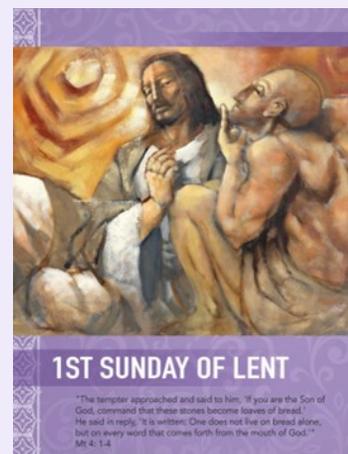

Each year during Lent, the Church invites us to reflect on our fragility and the importance of turning back to the Lord, emphasizing the need to resist temptation as part of our spiritual journey. This invitation helps us stay engaged and committed to deepening our faith during this season.

The first couple failed in their mission. Instead of listening to the voice of the Creator, they preferred that of the tempter, who has been the Father of lies from the beginning. (John 8,44) Recognizing this can inspire us to be humble about our own struggles with obedience: "You certainly will not die! No, God knows well that the moment you eat of it, your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods who know what is good and what is evil." (Genesis 3:4-5) By wanting to be "like God," the first couple felt lower than their own humanity: into death.

This episode was repeated once again with the temptation of Jesus. Three times, Satan offered him things that would only distract him from his mission. Jesus had come to serve his Father by obeying his voice, which asked him to be the sacrifice that saves the world: "My food is to do the will of the one who sent me and to finish his work." (John 4,34).

As is written of me in the scroll, Behold, I come to do your will, O God." (Hebrews 10,7). Reflecting on Jesus' obedience can inspire us to stay committed to our own spiritual path.

The ancient serpent offered him all the riches and glories of the world, that is, to make him God: "All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me." (Matthew 4:9) Jesus stood firm against him and emerged victorious. Thus, he, the New Adam, was able to reverse the situation in favor of his mission, which is to obey his Father. This Sunday invites us to ask ourselves repeatedly: Whom do we obey? God or the serpent who rules this world of darkness?

The Cenacle

The term cenacle comes from the Latin cenaculum or "dining room". It is a term often used to describe the Upper Room where Jesus met with His Apostles.

It is as old as the Church itself.

In today's Church the cenacle is described as a small faith-sharing group.

We invite you to join us at St. Mary's School on Tuesdays. The next gathering will take place on Tuesday, February 24th

Come join us. Drop the kids off at CCD or come on your own. We will gather together to grow in our understanding of our faith, to talk openly about living out our faith in our homes, our workplaces and the community, and to support each other in walking with Christ.

Come, be a part of a warm faith community
We hope to see you there.

We invite all those not enrolled in our Preschool Program to come and celebrate Story Time with us. The program begins at 9:30 AM and goes until 10:30 AM. Children will listen to a story, have a snack, make a craft or play a game with our preschool class. It is a perfect time to see what our Preschool program is like.

Paula Reuben, chairperson of the St. Padre Pio Parish Stitching Ministry along with Carmine Amico, PGK of Council 6621, presented to residents of the NJ Veterans Memorial Home, lap blankets which the ministry made. Accepting the blankets were two of the residents along with RJ Morrison of the activity department who thanked Paula for her group's donation.

Quotes for Lent by Bishop Fulton J. Sheen

“What our Lord did say on the cross was to forgive. Forgive your Pilates, who are too weak to defend your justice; forgive your Herods, who are too sensual to perceive your spirituality; forgive your Judases, who think worth is to be measured in terms of silver..”

“People living in dirt hardly ever realize how dirty dirt is. Those who live in sin hardly understand the horror of sin.”

Annual “Run for Aaron” Saturday, April 11th - 9:00 AM ~ Rosary Hall

Registration begins at 7:30 a.m. All ages, walkers and runners, are welcome to do the 5K run or one mile run/walk. Jogging strollers, wheelchair participants, & leashed dogs are welcome.
