With Opened Bible / Second Sunday of Lent
Fr. Dimitri

"This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him."

This second Sunday of Lent invites us to contemplate the Transfiguration of Jesus, revealing his divine glory and foreshadowing his resurrection, inspiring us to reflect on our spiritual transformation and growth.

Stopping on Mount Tabor, he revealed his glory and his mission to the apostles who accompanied him (three of them, as required by the Law of Moses in Deuteronomy 17:6; 19:15). He is the one to whom the new Israel (the Church) must listen.

To give us proof of his preeminence over the entire Old Testament, the Gospel presents two essential figures from the past: Moses, representing the Law, and Elijah, representing the prophets. Their presence on the mountain highlights the grace offered through Jesus, encouraging us to seek spiritual transformation. From now on, the believer no longer needs Moses (the Law) or Elijah (the prophets) to embrace the truth, but Jesus, the Author of the Law and the Head of all the prophets. Indeed, it is said in John 1:17: "For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ." The voice of the Father resounded on the mountain, testifying that Jesus is the one we must listen to. By listening to him, we profess that he is our Shepherd: "My sheep hear my voice" (John 10:27). Thus, we can receive the grace of spiritual transfiguration, which can lead us into the Kingdom of Heaven.

The Cenacle

The term cenacle comes from the Latin cenaculum or "dining room". It is a term often used to describe the Upper Room where Jesus met with His Apostles.

It is as old as the Church itself.

In today's Church the cenacle is described as a small faith-sharing group.

We invite you to join us at St. Mary's School on Tuesdays.

The next gathering will take place on Tuesday, March 3rd. Come join us. Drop the kids off at CCD or come on your own.

We will gather together to grow in our understanding of our faith, to talk openly about living out our faith in our homes, our workplaces and the community, and to support each other in walking with Christ.

Come, be a part of a warm faith community

We hope to see you there.

LENT

Is like a long 'retreat' during which we can turn back into ourselves & listen to the voice of God, in order to defeat the temptations of the Evil One.

It is a period of spiritual 'combat' which we must experience alongside Jesus, not with pride & presumption, but using the arms of faith, prayer, listening to the word of God & penance.

In this way we will be able to celebrate Easter in truth, ready to renew the promises of our baptism.

Pope Benedict XVI

EASTER MASS REMEMBRANCE / LIVING & DECEASED
