The Resurrection is not merely a resuscitated corpse, but a fundamental new reality—the “leap” into a new life, a “new land” of communion with God. It is the definitive triumph of love and truth over death and evil, transforming human nature from earthly to incorruptible.

Pope Benedict XVI

With Opened Bible

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of Our Lord Fr. Dimitri

“When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place.” (John 20,6-7)

Jesus is risen. Alleluia. He has conquered death, and thanks to Him, we have the hope of eternal life. This truth can fill our hearts with confidence and reassurance, strengthening our faith in God's promise of everlasting life. All the spiritual disciplines of Lent have led us toward this great day—the first day of a new creation: the creation of those raised to life in Jesus Christ. "He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent." (Colossians 1:18)

To celebrate this event, the Gospel of Saint John invites us to relive one of the tangible proofs of this great spiritual transformation: the strips of cloth that covered Jesus' body. Before proceeding further, we must recall that the Incarnation called for—and prepared the way for—Jesus' death and resurrection. During the Magi's visit, the Savior received three gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. (Matthew 2:11) The myrrh was the gift that foreshadowed His Passion and death, reminding us of God's divine plan and inspiring reverence for His sacrifice. In a sense, the myrrh proclaimed that Jesus was truly human—and that, like all men, He would experience death. Alongside the myrrh, the angels who announced His birth to the shepherds of Bethlehem provided a specific sign by which to recognize Him: "And this will be a sign for you: you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger." (Luke 2:12) Similarly, at His resurrection, the empty tomb and the burial cloths served as the sign of His new birth: His resurrection. These signs invite us to marvel at God's plan of salvation and His power to bring new life from death. Jesus will die no more, for He has become the key that unlocks the gates of Paradise—gates that the sin of the first Adam had closed. (Cf. Genesis 3:24) Through His Passion, death, and resurrection, Jesus has become the Lord of the living and the dead.

Over the past few months, we've been trying to create a space for parents during CCD. After brainstorming, we realize what might be most helpful right now is a quiet spot for people to relax with a snack and a warm cup of coffee.

On Tuesday nights during CCD, we're opening a room for just that. No agenda, no pressure. Just coffee and snacks. Come talk, sit quietly, or just relax for a bit. Younger children are welcome as well. In addition to food, we will have coloring books and crayons available.

If you are thinking about stopping by, please complete the short Google Form which can be found via QR code below. The purpose of the form is to provide us with a headcount so we know how much coffee and donuts to purchase.

This year's final dates will be:
04/14, 04/21, and 04/28

God bless, and we hope to see you there.

St. Vincent de Paul Pantry

Dear Parishioners: Thank you, thank you, thank you for your awe-inspiring generosity to our diocesan food drive from which the St. Vincent de Paul pantry benefitted. Thanks to Father Joe and his staff for promoting the drive, to the Knights of Columbus for arranging transportation and the manpower to load 4 1/2 truck loads of groceries, to St. Mary's School students for their donations and to Dave for his assistance. This has truly been a parish wide endeavor which was extremely successful in benefitting the citizens of Vineland who are in great need. In the words of St. Vincent de Paul: "We should strive to keep our hearts open to the suffering and wretchedness of other people and pray continually that God may grant us that spirit of compassion which is truly the spirit of God." Parishioners...YOU'RE THE BEST! Happy Easter!

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

"Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth." COLOSSIANS 3:2

Do you put God first in all things? Possessions, money, power, ego can easily become gods to many of us. Do a quick check of what is important to you because of your stewardship. Is God at the very top of the list? If not, your priorities need to be re-adjusted. Don't let earthly things become a god before God. This is also the first commandment – "I am the Lord your God, you shall not have any strange gods before me."

The Altar Rosary Society is seeking donations of Catholic & faith based books for a lending library cart. Please only donate books that you do not want returned and that are in good condition.

Please bag the books, and label "ARS".
