Fr. Dimitri

"Receive the Holy Spirit.

Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them,

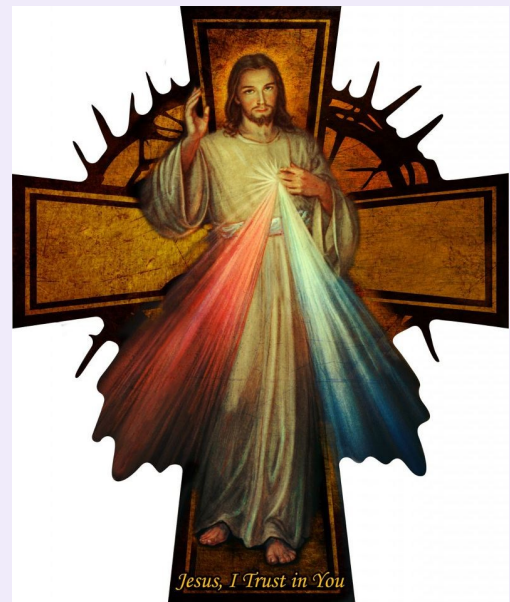

and whose sins you retain are retained." (John 20, 22-23)

The Second Sunday of Easter, known as Divine Mercy Sunday since Saint Pope John Paul II canonized Saint Faustina in 2000, highlights the Church's core mission of embodying mercy. This day reminds us that the Gospel of Saint John calls us to be stewards of mercy, not political parties or ideologies: "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." (John 20:23)

The Church received the gift of the Spirit in two phases: the first at the Resurrection (the Spirit is given to the Apostles for the forgiveness of sins), and the second at Pentecost (Acts 2:1ff), where the Spirit was poured out so that the Church might serve as the guarantor and voice of evangelization. These two phases constitute the same mission. In other words, Jesus intended His Church to be the place where divine mercy flows in abundance. It is what Saint Paul understood when he wrote the following to the Corinthians: "And all this is from God, who has reconciled us to himself through Christ and given us the ministry of reconciliation, namely, God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting their trespasses against them and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. we are ambassadors for Christ, as if God were appealing through us. So, we implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.

" (2 Corinthians 5,18-20)

Indeed, the Church—animated by the Spirit of the Resurrection—must always and everywhere be a " source of divine mercy, comfort and spiritual solace for sinners." When we serve as channels of God's mercy, we uphold our mission; if we fail, we risk losing our true identity as the Church of the Risen Christ.

Jesus, I Trust in You

Over the past few months, we've been trying to create a space for parents during CCD. After brainstorming, we realize what might be most helpful right now is a quiet spot for people to relax with a snack and a warm cup of coffee.

On Tuesday nights during CCD, we're opening a room for just that. No agenda, no pressure. Just coffee and snacks. Come talk, sit quietly, or just relax for a bit. Younger children are welcome as well. In addition to food, we will have coloring books and crayons available.

If you are thinking about stopping by, please complete the short Google Form which can be found via QR code below. The purpose of the form is to provide us with a headcount so we know how much coffee and donuts to purchase.

This year's final dates will be:
04/14, 04/21, and 04/28

God bless, and we hope to see you there.

St. Vincent de Paul Pantry

Dear Parishioners: Thank you, thank you, thank you for your awe-inspiring generosity to our diocesan food drive from which the St. Vincent de Paul pantry benefitted. Thanks to Father Joe and his staff for promoting the drive, to the Knights of Columbus for arranging transportation and the manpower to load 4 1/2 truck loads of groceries, to St. Mary's School students for their donations and to Dave for his assistance. This has truly been a parish wide endeavor which was extremely successful in benefitting the citizens of Vineland who are in great need. In the words of St. Vincent de Paul: "We should strive to keep our hearts open to the suffering and wretchedness of other people and pray continually that God may grant us that spirit of compassion which is truly the spirit of God." Parishioners...YOU'RE THE BEST! Happy Easter!
