With Opened Bible / Fifth Sunday of Easter Fr. Dimitri

With Opened Bible

"Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us."
Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father." (John 14,9)

Every Sunday and on feast days, we profess the Creed. We believe that God is the Creator of the visible and invisible world. That implies that we believe He is Spirit, not flesh. (Cf.
John 4; 1 Timothy 1:17) Having stated this, we can attempt to understand Jesus' solemn declaration on the matter:
"Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us."
Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father." This truth reveals Jesus as the visible image of the invisible God, inspiring reverence and awe in believers, emphasizing His divine nature.

Long before Jesus' birth, the prophet Isaiah foretold His divine identity: 'Emmanuel,' meaning 'God among His people.'
This prophecy deepens our trust in God's divine plan and the reality of the Incarnation.

Through His ministry, His words, and His miracles, Jesus demonstrated to the Jews—and later to us Christians—that He is God in the flesh that Mary fashioned for Him. Saint Paul explained this well to the Colossians when he wrote:
"He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him." (Colossians 1:16-17)

Indeed, at the Resurrection, Thomas professed what others still hesitated to do: Jesus is Lord and God. (John 20:28) These testimonies from Scripture truly attest that "whoever has seen Jesus in His flesh has seen the Father, who is hidden in His divine majesty." (John 14:9) Consequently, through our baptism, we received the grace to be the continuing presence of Christ in the world. Through our deeds, people can see God in us.

Flowers in Front of the Holy Family

Over the past few months, we've been trying to create a space for parents during CCD. After brainstorming, we realize what might be most helpful right now is a quiet spot for people to relax with a snack and a warm cup of coffee.

On Tuesday nights during CCD, we're opening a room for just that. No agenda, no pressure. Just coffee and snacks. Come talk, sit quietly, or just relax for a bit. Younger children are welcome as well. In addition to food, we will have coloring books and crayons available.

If you are thinking about stopping by, please complete the short Google Form which can be found via QR code below. The purpose of the form is to provide us with a headcount so we know how much coffee and donuts to purchase.

God bless, and we hope to see you there.

St. Vincent de Paul Pantry

Dear Parishioners: Thank you, thank you, thank you for your awe-inspiring generosity to our diocesan food drive from which the St. Vincent de Paul pantry benefitted. Thanks to Father Joe and his staff for promoting the drive, to the Knights of Columbus for arranging transportation and the manpower to load 4 1/2 truck loads of groceries, to St. Mary's School students for their donations and to Dave for his assistance. This has truly been a parish wide endeavor which was extremely successful in benefitting the citizens of Vineland who are in great need. In the words of St. Vincent de Paul: "We should strive to keep our hearts open to the suffering and wretchedness of other people and pray continually that God may grant us that spirit of compassion which is truly the spirit of God." Parishioners...YOU'RE THE BEST! Happy Easter!

Conditions For A Plenary Indulgence

During The Jubilee Year of St. Francis of Assisi 2026

His Holiness Pope Leo XIV has established that from 1/10/26 until 1/10/27 a special year of St. Francis shall be proclaimed.

The Apostolic Penitentiary grants a plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (Sacramental Confession, Eucharistic Communion, & prayer according to the intentions of the Holy Father), also applicable in the form of suffrage for the souls in Purgatory.

This indulgence is applicable to all the faithful, who fulfill these conditions:

1. Have a heart detached from sin.
2. Visit, in the form of a pilgrimage, any place of worship anywhere in the world dedicated to St. Francis or connected to him for any reason.
3. Spend reasonable periods of time in pious meditation and raise prayers to God, asking that feelings of Christian charity towards their neighbors & authentic vows of harmony & peace among peoples may spring forth from their hearts, following the example of St. Francis of Assisi.
4. Offer a prayer to St. Francis of Assisi, St. Clare,
& the saints of the Franciscan family.
5. Offer the Our Father, a Hail Mary, and the Creed for Pope Leo XIV.
6. Receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion on the day of the visit.
7. Receive the Sacrament of Confession (3 weeks before or after the visit)

Baptism

On April 19th.
we welcomed
Isabelle Illuminada Afanador
to the Church and our
St. Padre Pio parish family.

On April 18th
Our Annual Oldies
Dance Party
was held in Rosary Hall.

A great evening of dancing and getting together with old friends
and making new friends,
and as always, the food was fabulous.

Here you see Father Joe stopping by
to visit with Bob Kelly and DJ Joel

"Almighty ever-living God, lead us to a share in the joys of Heaven, so that the humble flock may reach where the brave Shepherd has gone before."

Prayer for Vocations
Heavenly Father we ask you to send laborers
into your harvest

Inspire, in the hearts of your people, vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and religious life.

Bless our families with a spirit of generosity. So that those whom you call have the courage to give themselves to your Church in faith.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen
