Pentecost
SUNDAY

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." - Jn 20:21-23

With Opened Bible / Fr. Dimitri Pentecost vs Babel.

"They were astounded, and in amazement they asked,
"Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans?
Then how does each of us hear them in his native language?"
(Acts of The Apostles 2, 6-8)

Fifty days (Pentecost) after the resurrection of Jesus, the Apostles, Mary, and other disciples were gathered in the Upper Room, awaiting the promise of the Holy Spirit. In the form of tongues of fire, He descended upon each of them and set their hearts ablaze, empowering them to proclaim the Good News of salvation. (Cf. Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11) But what is the spiritual significance of this event, and why tongues? To answer this, let's look back to the episode of the Tower of Babel. (Genesis 11:1-8) where humans decided to build a tower capable of rivaling the heavens.

At first glance, this task seemed impossible from a human perspective. But on a spiritual level, it was a different matter entirely. It was, in fact, an act of magic. They sought to enter the divine realm without having been invited. To prevent this, God sent upon them a spirit that divided them and rendered them unable to understand one another. That resulted in their dispersion throughout the world. At Pentecost, the exact opposite occurred. "They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language?"
(Acts of The Apostles 2, 6-8)

The Holy Spirit arrived and endowed His Church with the charism of tongues—a vital means of transmitting the Gospel throughout the world. And wherever there is "world," there are also tongues and dialects. "But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." (Acts 1:8) The Spirit of Pentecost is the Spirit of the propagation of the Gospel. This gift aims at the universality of the world ("katholikos"): "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." (Matthew 28:19)—whereas Babel sought to reduce humanity to a small, insular group closed off from the rest of the world. "Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower with its top in the sky, and so make a name for ourselves; otherwise, we shall be scattered all over the earth." (Genesis 11:4)

Pentecost is God's answer to the folly of Babel. Unity in diversity answers the petty desire for uniformity.

May this message help us to understand, ever more deeply, that our God desires us to be universal within the uniqueness of love. "One Spirit but many gifts." (1 Corinthians 12,12)

St. Vincent de Paul Pantry

So soon summer will be here! The number of clients at the St. Vincent de Paul pantry continues to rise just as the temperatures do. Standard items always needed are: pasta & sauce, mac 'n cheese, cereal (the sweet kind kids like), soup, canned vegetables, snacks, and all non-perishable food items. Also, many of our clients are in need of basic toiletries. We also accept clean, mended clothing, towels, bedding and small household items such as kitchen utensils, pots, pans, dishes, tableware, etc. The white cart in the rectory vestibule is waiting to be filled! Thank you for always generously answering the call to assist the needy of Vineland. Parishioners: You're the best!!!

SCAM ALERT !!!

Emails using Fr. Joe's name are circulating requesting assistance.

THIS IS A SCAM !!!

Do not open the email and delete immediately!

Neither Fr. Joe, Fr. Dimitri nor any member of the parish staff will ever solicit money, or any other type of assistance from the parishioners.

Congratulations to Father Joe on the anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood May 27, 1983

O my Jesus, I beg you on behalf of the whole Church: Grant it love and the light of your Spirit, and give power to the words of priests so that hardened hearts might be brought to repentance and return to you, O Lord.

St. Faustina
God bless you Father Joe

O God, by whose mercy the faithful departed find rest, look kindly on Your departed veterans who gave their lives in the service of their country. Grant that through the passion, death and resurrection of your Son, they may share in the joy of Your heavenly kingdom and rejoice in You with Your saints forever.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

As Americans we honor the sacrifices of those who died in the service of our nation, and whose sacrifices have won for us the blessings of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. May the souls of all the faithful departed, especially those fallen in the service of this great nation, through the mercy of God, forever rest in peace. Amen

"Almighty ever-living God, lead us to a share in the joys of Heaven, so that the humble flock may reach where the brave Shepherd has gone before."

Heavenly Father we ask you to send laborers into your harvest

Inspire, in the hearts of your people, vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and religious life.

Bless our families with a spirit of generosity. So that those whom you call have the courage to give themselves to your Church in faith.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, keep your priests within the shelter of Your Most Sacred Heart, where none can touch them.

Keep unstained their anointed hands which daily touch Your sacred body.

Keep unsullied their lips daily tinged with Your precious Blood. Keep pure and unworldly their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of the priesthood. Let Your holy love surround and protect them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit, and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here, and their everlasting crown in eternity.

The Altar Rosary Society invites you to join them on Wednesday, May 27th at 6:30PM to pray the Rosary at the Grotto
In case of rain, we will meet in Rosary Hall. Hope to see you there.
