With Opened Bible Who is my neighbor? (Luke 10,29) Fr. Dimitri

In a world where individualism and indifference often overshadow our shared humanity, the Gospel of Saint Luke serves as a beacon of hope, reminding us of the transformative power of true love, as embodied in the teachings of Christ.

A scholar who is a devout man asks Jesus, 'What must I do to inherit the Kingdom?' Apparently, like a religious man, he knows all the commandments, but deep down, the commandment he lacks is the love of neighbor, the crowning glory of all.

He thought he knew everything because he practiced religion, but he lacked the essentials because the Spirit of God did not enlighten him. So, he asks Jesus, 'Who is my neighbor?' This question stems from a tormented heart seeking peace. In response, Jesus tells him the parable of the Good Samaritan. In this story steeped in conflict, Jesus paints an image of love that transcends all divisions, quarrels, and enmities, uniting us in our shared humanity.

The man beaten to death is a Jew. A priest and a Levite, altar servants, pass through and leave him to die. Why? It is not because they are wicked but out of obedience to the Law of Moses. Those who serve the altar must not approach blood or a corpse to avoid becoming impure. (Cf. Leviticus 21:1) It is in this religious but not sufficiently human atmosphere that the Good Samaritan (this man's sworn enemy) approaches him and relieves him (with oil and wine, images of the sacraments) and takes him into his care at an inn. By caring for his enemy, Jesus makes the Good Samaritan the epitome of the Christian who understands the true meaning of love, which is limitless and faceless.

True love, as demonstrated in the parable of the Good Samaritan, knows no boundaries of nationality, social status, or religious affiliation. If God is love (cf. 1 John 4:8), then our love for our neighbors and even our enemies must reflect this universal truth. As the Lord commands us, 'Go and do likewise.' (Luke 10:37) Our neighbor is anyone who needs our love and care, here and now.

Many families will be away on vacation during the summer months. However, our expenses do not go away during that time. Our operating expenses continue throughout the year. Please know that your weekly contributions during those low cash flow months is needed and greatly appreciated.

On behalf of the St. Vincent de Paul Vineland pantry and volunteers, I would like to thank the parishioners of St. Padre Pio for their generous donations to feed our clients. It is a rare occasion that we do not find food items in the "Blue Box." However, the need for food continues. Standard items always needed are: pasta, sauce, mac & cheese, cereal, canned veggies, soup, snacks, any non-perishable items. There is an ongoing need for toiletries: deodorant, shampoo & conditioner, toothpaste & toothbrushes, lotion, hand sanitizer, soap, etc.

God bless you and thank you again for your generous support in feeding the hungry of Vineland. Parishioners...YOU'RE THE BEST!!!

Baptism

This week we welcome
Luke Scott Fogg
to the Church and our
St. Padre Pio parish family.

Jesus on the 4th of July

We gather 'round to celebrate
On Independence Day
Pay homage to our country
As the children run and play.

With barbeques and picnics
And fireworks in the air
The flag we own is proudly flown
To show how much we care.

The stars and stripes spell freedom
She waves upon the breeze
While bursts of colors can be seen
Above the towering trees.

This is all quite wonderful
We revel in delight
But God above in divine love
Has brought this day to light.

With just a stroke of liberty
A touch of His great hand
He gave democracy to us
And helped this country stand.

The stripes upon our stately flag
Were touched by His sweet grace
Each star of white that shines so bright
Reflects His loving face.

So as you turn to face the flag
For battles that were fought
Be filled with pride for those who died
And freedoms that were bought.

But don't forget to thank the One
That gives the bright display
The reason why we paint the sky
On Independence Day

Festival Basket Raffle

We are in need of donations toward our Festival Basket Raffle.

Themed baskets always seem the most popular. So let your creativity run wild in choosing items you think would catch the festival goers eye. Each year, the attendees remark at how unique and well designed the baskets have become. We know that this festival will be no different.

On Your Mark, Get Set, CREATE!!

Desserts are needed for Café Pio at our annual St. Padre Pio Festival. Thanks in advance to all the wonderful bakers who take the time to make all of the delicious goodies. Drop off time and place will be given closer to the Festival date.

Due to Health Department Regulations, we are unable to accept any desserts that require refrigeration.

ATTENTION FESTIVAL BOOTH CAPTAINS

The next festival planning meeting will be on Monday, July 21st in Rosary Hall.

Booth Captains are requested to attend with a list of supplies they will need for the day of the Festival.

If you are unable to attend the meeting, please drop off the list to the Parish office no later than Monday, July 14th.

Our goal is to have your supplies available for you the day of the Festival to avoid unnecessary stress and insure proper use of your valuable time.

Thank you for all you do each year to make the festival a success!
