With opened Bible / Hospitality. Fr. Dimitri

The first reading and the Gospel of this Sunday turn us to an essential aspect of life: welcoming and serving visitors. Abraham receives the three Angels (an image of the Holy Trinity) and serves them food. The concept of angels eating while being spiritual beings is another topic to explore another time.

Indeed, they joyfully receive and entertain them. At the end of their visit, they announce the Good News: the birth of a son next year. (Genesis 18:4-5, 10)

In the Gospel of Luke, Jesus visits a friendly family in Bethany. (Bethany means the poor man's house in Hebrew.) It is where Jesus knew how to wisely balance his time, taking moments of rest to regain his strength away from the pastoral turmoil.

The two sisters of his friend Lazarus, Martha and Mary, welcome him with joy. Martha prepares food with zeal and love while Mary sits at the Master's feet to listen to Him. (Luke 18) That episode reminds us of the two pillars of Christian spirituality: action (ministry) and contemplation. Saint Benedict used this phrase as the motto of his religious community: Ora (prayer) and labor (work). These two parts enable us to lead a balanced life, where neither work nor prayer has the upper hand.

Martha reproaches her sister for leaving her alone, but Jesus says to her: "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her." (Luke 18:42) The better part is "to be with Christ," to learn from him and listen to him. Today, more than ever, our Church needs this balance between ministry and contemplation. Action without prayer becomes activism, and prayer without action becomes social disengagement.

Abraham, Martha, and Mary teach us and encourage us to practice hospitality towards all. "Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels." (Hebrews 13:2)

Many families will be away on vacation during the summer months. However, our expenses do not go away during that time. Our operating expenses continue throughout the year. Please know that your weekly contributions during those low cash flow months is needed and greatly appreciated.

On behalf of the St. Vincent de Paul Vineland pantry and volunteers, I would like to thank the parishioners of St. Padre Pio for their generous donations to feed our clients. It is a rare occasion that we do not find food items in the "Blue Box." However, the need for food continues. Standard items always needed are: pasta, sauce, mac & cheese, cereal, canned veggies, soup, snacks, any non-perishable items. There is an ongoing need for toiletries: deodorant, shampoo & conditioner, toothpaste & toothbrushes, lotion, hand sanitizer, soap, etc. God bless you and thank you again for your generous support in feeding the hungry of Vineland. Parishioners...YOU'RE THE BEST!!!

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

Are you interested in becoming Catholic?
Or are you already a baptized Catholic, but have not yet received the sacraments of First Holy Communion and/or Confirmation?

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process by which one becomes a fully initiated member of the Catholic Church. Participants can be those who are baptized and have no Christian background, or those who were baptized and raised in other Christian communities. The class is also intended for baptized Catholics who have not yet been Confirmed.

For more information please contact:
Fr. Joe at 609-790-4488

A FRIEND THAT YOU DIDN'T KNOW

You may have seen him quietly working. We suddenly lost a friend that you probably didn't know. For years, he silently toiled to make Saint Padre Pio Parish a better place.

Mr. Stephen Field was a fixture in our gardens for around twenty years. Steve was a tall thin man in brightly colored clothing, quiet and unassuming. He planted and tended our flowers and trees, always at his own expense. If you picked up a watering can at the Grotto or the cemetery, it was provided by Steve.

The flowers at the Grotto, our churches, and school were placed there by Steve and received his nurturing care. He loved the right to life. He could also be seen regularly sitting on our benches, enjoying nature.

Last week, on his way home from Saint Mary's Church, he was involved in an automobile accident that claimed his life. Please pray for him and remember the happiness that he provided to us.

Festival Basket Raffle

We are in need of donations toward our Festival Basket Raffle.
Themed baskets always seem the most popular.
So let your creativity run wild in choosing items
you think would catch the festival goers eye.
Each year, the attendees remark at how unique and well designed the baskets have become.

Desserts are needed for Café Pio at our annual St.
Padre Pio Festival. Thanks in advance to all the wonderful bakers who take the time to make all of the delicious goodies. Drop off time and place will be given closer to the Festival date.

Due to Health Department Regulations, we are unable to accept any desserts that require refrigeration.

ATTENTION FESTIVAL BOOTH CAPTAINS

The next festival planning meeting will be on Monday, July 21st in Rosary Hall.
Booth Captains are requested to attend with a list of supplies they will need for the day of the Festival.
If you are unable to attend the meeting,
please drop off the list to the Parish office no later than Monday, July 14th.
Our goal is to have your supplies available for you the day of the Festival to avoid unnecessary stress and insure proper use of your valuable time.
Thank you for all you do each year to make the festival a success!
