With Opened Bible Fr. Dimitri

"Amen, I say to you, among those born of women there has been none greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he." (Matthew 12,11)

Several figures of men and women marked the coming of the Lord, who remain prominent in the Advent liturgy. Among these figures is John the Baptist, whom Jesus called "the greatest among those born of women." Why did Jesus speak this way about John? John, or Jonathan (in Hebrew, meaning "Gift of God"), is the miraculous son of Zechariah, a priest of the tribe of Levi, and his wife Elizabeth, an apprentice to the Virgin Mary. (See Luke 1:5-7) John became the greatest for several reasons.

1. He is the last prophet of the Old Testament and the first of the New. Thus, he became the bridge between the two.
2. John was an apprentice to Christ; he was his second cousin.
3. John was the only prophet who announced the coming of the Lord and who saw him with his own eyes. (See John 1:29, 34)
4. John had the privilege of baptizing the Lord, who is the very Author of baptism. (See Mark 1:9)
5. John was the first to offer his life as a sacrifice (martyrdom) to testify that Jesus is the truth. (See Matthew 12:2; 14:1-12) All the reasons above make John the greatest of the children born of woman.

But it is because of his first encounter with the unborn Christ that we rejoice today on this Sunday of Joy. "When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, 'Most blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.' (Luke 1:41-42) With the desert, the parched land, and the steppe, let us exult and rejoice. (Isaiah 35:1-2) For, our salvation is at hand. "(James 5, 8)

The Cenacle

The term cenacle comes from the Latin cenaculum or "dining room". It is a term often used to describe the Upper Room where Jesus met with His Apostles.

It is as old as the Church itself.

In today's Church the cenacle is described as a small faith-sharing group.

We invite you to join us at St. Mary's School on Tuesdays
There will be no meeting on Tuesday, November 25th

The next meeting will be on December 2nd from 6:00 to 7:00pm
Come join us. Drop the kids off at CCD or come on your own.

We will gather together to grow in our understanding of our faith, to talk openly about living out our faith in our homes, our workplaces and the community, and to support each other in walking with Christ.

December 16th topic: Trusting God on the Journey

Come, be a part of a warm faith community

We hope to see you there.

BAMBINELLI SUNDAY

Next weekend, December 20th & 21st, all parishioners are invited to bring their figurine of Baby Jesus which will adorn their nativity scene at home to be blessed at all Masses.

This tradition began in the mid-1900's at the Vatican.

It was St. John Paul II who popularized it by encouraging children to bring their figurines to Mass for a special blessing.

The Third Sunday of Advent

The Third Sunday of Advent theme is joy. It is often called Gaudete Sunday from the Latin word for "rejoice."

The theme is one of rejoicing because the coming of the Lord is near. It is a joyful reminder that salvation is approaching.

This Sunday we find a color shift to a pink candle instead of the traditional purple reflecting the shift to a joyful and celebratory mood.

This joy is not just about temporary happiness but a deeper joy found in God's promises and the hope of salvation.
