With Opened Bible Fr. Dimitri

"The virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall name him Emmanuel." (Isaiah 7,14)

With the fourth Sunday of Advent, we are close of Christmas. The first reading and the Gospel also give us a glimpse into the identity and mission of the Messiah. He is Emmanuel (God-with-us), but above all, he is Yeshua or Jesus (which means God saves). Seven hundred years before the Messiah's birth, the prophet Isaiah prophesied his identity. He is Emmanuel (Isaiah 7:14). But at the fullness of time, when the Virgin Mary gave birth to him, the Messiah was not called Emmanuel but Jesus. Why is this change of name? What does it signify?

Emmanuel, God-with-us, is a prophetic name. But what is a prophetic name? It is a name that announces a significant event or person in accordance with God's plan. Emmanuel is the one who comes to tell us that from now on, "God dwells in the midst of his people." Through his way of being, his miracles, and his message of compassion and peace, Jesus is the presence of God (Shekinah) in the world. Now, why is he called Jesus?

To Joseph, the angel declared, "You shall name him Jesus." (Matthew 1:16) Jesus is his mission's name. That explains his reason for being in the world. This name reminds us that he is the sacrifice through which God saves us and proves his love for us. "God so loved the world he gave his only begotten Son" (John 3:16). Jesus was never called by the prophetic name "Emmanuel," not even once. But his mission's name (Jesus) continues to draw down blessings and peace upon the world. For "There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved." (Acts 4:12) May his name be blessed now and forever.

The Cenacle

The term cenacle comes from the Latin cenaculum or "dining room". It is a term often used to describe the Upper Room where Jesus met with His Apostles.

It is as old as the Church itself.

In today's Church the cenacle is described as a small faith-sharing group.

We invite you to join us at St. Mary's School on Tuesdays.

The next gathering will take place on Tuesday, January 6th.

Come join us. Drop the kids off at CCD or come on your own.

We will gather together to grow in our understanding of our faith, to talk openly about living out our faith in our homes, our workplaces and the community, and to support each other in walking with Christ.

Come, be a part of a warm faith community

We hope to see you there.

St. Vincent de Paul Pantry

The St. Vincent de Paul ministry would like to thank all of you for your generous support. We receive food through the Community Food Bank of NJ located in Pleasantville but we always run short. That's when your donations are needed.

We always need canned tuna fish and canned pasta (preferably with pop tops), peanut butter and jelly, cereal, pasta and tomato sauce. Any and all toiletries are always appreciated. Please place items in the white cart located in the rectory vestibule.

St. Vincent de Paul is known as the "apostle of charity" and "father of the poor"

"Charity is the cement which binds communities to God and persons to one another". - St Vincent de Paul

CHRISTMAS WISH LIST

St. Vincent de Paul needs your help! We hope to make Christmas a little merrier for the children of our pantry clients. This Christmas we are once again asking for a donation of a $20 WALMART gift card. Please put the cards in an envelope, write SVdP on it and place in the collection basket or drop off at the rectory office. Thank you for remembering the children! As always~Parishioners...YOU'RE THE BEST!!!

With Opened Bible

Christmas

"For a child is born to us, a son is given us;

upon his shoulder dominion rests.

They name him Wonder-Counselor, God-Hero,
Father-Forever, Prince of Peace." (Isaiah 9)

After the time of preparation, it is now the day of celebration. Jesus was born as a Child to embrace our humanity and raise us to God. At Christmas, the Church invites us to see ourselves as part of God's divine plan-as gifts of God to other (the Pre-existent Word) became man so that man might share in his divinity.(admirabile commercium according to saint Augustin) King David was right when he proclaimed, "Gods though you be, offspring of the Most High all of you" (Psalm 82:6). But this divinity is fully offered to us in Jesus, the God-Man who comes to save us.

In the Book of Isaiah, the titles given to the Child-King are striking. All the titles given to God, the Creator and source of all good, are also given to the Child. "Wonder Counselor" is the title of God, Source of infinite wisdom (the Holy Spirit), "God-Hero" (the role attributed to God who conquered Egypt and the enemies of his People),

"Father-Forever" (one of the significant titles of the Creator of all things relating to his divine providence and love for the sinners), and finally "Prince of Peace" (which defines the divine presence in the life of his People). All these titles are given to the Child because he is God, born of God, Light born of the Light, as we proclaim in the Nicene-Constantinopolitan Creed. At Christmas, the gift we receive is God himself, the Word incarnate, so that the human being may rise to divine glory.

Therefore, let us embrace our calling to be "gifts of God to others, gifts of God to this world that so desperately needs peace and joy." May the Christ Child be our joy, our consolation, and our hope.
