Fr. Dimitri

"Joseph rose and took the child and his mother by night and departed for Egypt." (Matthieu 2, 13)

The entire history of the Bible, and of the Jewish people in particular, revolves around migration, exile, and the search for refuge and a better life, highlighting the biblical theme that spans generations. It all began with the fall of the first couple in the Garden, illustrating the start of humanity's journey in search of home and security. (Genesis 3:23-24)

Later, long after the flood, God chose a man, a Babylonian named Abram, and guided him to leave his country and family in search of a land of blessing. His migration began and led him to various countries and regions. (Cf. Genesis 12:1-40) He crossed the land of Shechem (Genesis 12:6), the mountain of Bethel (Genesis 12:8), camped in the Negev (Genesis 12:9), and finally arrived in Egypt (Genesis 12:10), trusting God's plan at each step. After settling in Canaan, it was his grandson, Jacob (who would become Israel), who left his land and family in search of security and happiness. Fleeing the wrath of his brother Esau, Jacob went to the land of Aram to his uncle Laban and married his two daughters, Leah and Rachel. (Genesis 28:15; Hosea 12:13) A few years later, he returned home with his family and all that he possessed. (Genesis 31:8-13)

When famine struck Canaan, Jacob sent his sons to Egypt to buy grain. There, they discovered that their brother Joseph, whom they had previously sold into slavery, was alive. Jacob's entire family (70 people in total) went to Egypt in search of a better life and remained there for 430 years. (Genesis 46:1-3, 26; Exodus 12:40)

After four centuries of servitude and suffering, God raised Moses to lead Israel on a pivotal journey to the promised land of Canaan, emphasizing the importance of migration as part of God's divine plan. Israel sojourned in the desert for 40 years, a period of testing and faith. (Exodus 13:18; Deuteronomy 8:2)

Settled in Canaan and becoming strong through the establishment of the monarchy, Israel forgot the covenant and began to worship idols. God punished them by allowing them to fall into the hands of the Babylonians, who led them into exile. They remained there for 70 years. (2 Chronicles 36:20; Jeremiah 25:11-12)

At the dawn of salvation, the idea of migration continues its journey through the quest for truth of the Magi from the East (Matthew 2:1) and the family of Nazareth. Joseph took his wife and the child and fled to Egypt. (Matthew 2:13)

The Church of Christ is a pilgrim family, living and witnessing to Christ, Light and Life on earth, yet continually in search of the celestial city above, illustrating the ongoing spiritual journey rooted in biblical migration themes. (Philippians 3:13-14)

The idea of migration is fundamental in the Holy Scriptures, but it also shows that family and faith are vital in life's journey. The family, the domestic church (to use the words of Saint John Paul II), is where God's presence becomes real and comforting for us.

The Cenacle

The term cenacle comes from the Latin cenaculum or "dining room". It is a term often used to describe the Upper Room where Jesus met with His Apostles.

It is as old as the Church itself.

In today's Church the cenacle is described as a small faith-sharing group.

We invite you to join us at St. Mary's School on Tuesdays.

The next gathering will take place on Tuesday, January 6th.

Come join us. Drop the kids off at CCD or come on your own.

We will gather together to grow in our understanding of our faith, to talk openly about living out our faith in our homes, our workplaces and the community, and to support each other in walking with Christ.

Come, be a part of a warm faith community

We hope to see you there.

St. Vincent de Paul Pantry

The St. Vincent de Paul ministry would like to thank all of you for your generous support. We receive food through the Community Food Bank of NJ located in Pleasantville but we always run short. That's when your donations are needed.

We always need canned tuna fish and canned pasta (preferably with pop tops), peanut butter and jelly, cereal, pasta and tomato sauce. Any and all toiletries are always appreciated. Please place items in the white cart located in the rectory vestibule.

Prayer to Saint Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

The Women's Gospel Group

WHEN:

6:30-7:30pm OLOP Chapel

Are you looking for a way to strengthen your relationship with our Lord?

Join our Women's Reflection Group / Faith Sharing for Women. I invite you to join us as we pray, read, discuss, and reflect on the upcoming Gospel for the week, and share our experiences that shape, challenge, enhance, and strengthen our faith. Feel free to share or sit quietly and listen. If you can't make it every week, come when you can. For those of you who can't participate in person, please join us via Zoom! Please contact Patty Barse if interested at: gospelreflection2023@gmail.com and she will forward the the Zoom link to you.

THANK YOU!

We know that many of you have had the opportunity to see our beautiful Church calendar for 2026. We would like to take this opportunity to thank Rone Funeral Home for their generosity in supplying our calendars each year. It is greatly appreciated.

It's not always a Winter Wonderland for everyone.

Vineland Code Blue is a non profit organization that has been serving the homeless for over a decade by providing a warming center for the homeless when overnight temperatures drop to 32 degrees.

This year, two of our young parishioners Giabella and Milana DeMaria who attend Our Lady of Mercy Academy will be collecting "New" gloves, scarves and blankets for Vineland Code Blue.

Donations may be dropped off in the marked box in the vestibule of Our Lady of Pompeii Church.

Thank you for helping those less fortunate.

"Love has to be put into action and that action is service."

The Holy Family teaches us that when we belong to a family, we must focus on the other & not self. A husband & wife are a family. If they are blessed with children, then they must become the center. They are loved, taught & guided. Just as God loves us, teaches us through His Church & Scripture, & guides us. The family raises children for the Lord.

They are a visible Holy Family on earth.

Devotion to the Holy Family in reality was born in Bethlehem with Baby Jesus. The 1st to kneel before the Christ Child were the Shepherds, but they were also honoring His family.

The Church presents the Holy Family as a role model and as a goal for all Christian families.
