

CYBERCRIME NOTICE
04/07/2023

In view of the explosion of email based phishing attacks circulating in the UK, Pioneer Oil Tools has posted this notice to help protect businesses targeted in this fashion.

If an email purporting to come from Pioneer Oil Tools Ltd is received and the email domain address is not @pioneeroiltools.com then it is a scam. Unsolicited links in emails are also an attempt to scam.

For UK based recipients these mails should be reported to the National Crime Agency
<https://www.ncsc.gov.uk/collection/phishing-scams/report-scam-email>

For more information see the UK National Crime Agency website
<https://www.ncsc.gov.uk/collection/phishing-scams>

For non UK based recipients please see your national agency in charge of policing cyber crime.

If in doubt over an email being genuine or not please contact Pioneer Oil Tools through our web form or use the email link at the top of our main web page
