Message From Your Executive Director

It's September, and that means one of my favorite traditions is here: National Assisted Living Week! If you haven't heard the story, this week-long celebration was created nearly 30 years ago to honor the deep connections between residents, teams and families in communities just like ours. Each year brings a new theme—this year, it's "Ageless Adventure"—reminding us there's no expiration date on joy, curiosity, or a good laugh.

Here's a nugget of assisted living history you might not know: the very first modern assisted living facility in the country was Park Place in Portland, Oregon, opened by Dr. Karen Wilson in 1981. It was a game-changer—combining private rooms, around the clock care, community spaces, and real independence for residents. Oregon issued the first official assisted living license in 1988, so this whole movement isn't as old as you might think. But the heart of assisted living—respect, dignity, a sense of home—goes back much further.

That's always been our focus, too. When Barry Ray and Bryan Cook founded Legacy Senior Living, they did it as a ministry, believing that every senior deserves to be treated like family, and served with honor, respect, faith and integrity.

We've got a full slate of fun planned for National Assisted Living Week, and you're invited to join us—not just for the week of festivities, but any day you want to stop by. Our doors are always open to family, friends, and anyone who wants to share in the adventure.

As we head into another month, thank you for the trust you place in us. It's a privilege to care for our residents and to share in the stories, smiles, and moments that make this community truly feel like home.

Here's to another month of living fully, loving deeply, and maybe learning something new along the way.

Sincerely,

Cindy Reinheimer
Executive Director

Bernie Walsh: Spreading Smiles, Stories, & Sweetness

If you've ever crossed paths with Bernie Walsh, you know she's the kind of person who lights up a room. She's got a soft spot for Elvis, a quick wit for a good joke, and never says no to a bite of chocolate.

Born near the Jersey Shore in New York on December 3, 1930, Bernie is the eldest of six—a natural caretaker from the start. Even as a child, she made it her mission to look after not just her siblings, but every kid on the block. Bernie always believed that children are the heart of the future, and she made sure every child she knew felt loved and cared for.

Bernie's work ethic and big heart took her far. She earned a full scholarship to Mount St. Ursula, a prestigious private Catholic school, and managed to graduate in just three years—a day she still counts as one of her proudest.

Love found Bernie in the most classic of ways: checking the mailbox. She and Daniel Walsh lived in the same apartment building and, as fate would have it, shared a mailbox. Daniel knew right away that Bernie was the one, and after a love-at-first-sight moment, the two were married for 63 happy years. Their family grew to four children—Dan, Edward, and Patricia, who visit often, and one beloved son who passed away as an infant—and now includes 29 grandchildren and great-grandchildren that Bernie treasures beyond words.

For more than five decades, Bernie worked at Macy's in the cosmetics department, retiring at age 79. She loved making her customers smile, jotting on their receipts, "If it's not fun, don't go there," and calling after them, "And if you have to go there, make it fun!" Her gift for laughter and kindness made every shopping trip a little brighter.

Bernie's faith and family are her compass. She starts each day with a prayer, dedicating it to the Lord and her loved ones. Her favorite saying is, "If this is it, we will let it be." And if you ever need a laugh, Bernie's your gal—she's even published a book of her favorite jokes, always ready for visitors to enjoy.

Stop by Bernie's apartment, say hello, and you'll leave with a smile—and maybe a new joke to share.
