

AFRICAN MULTIDISCIPLINARY TAX JOURNAL (AMTJ)

INDEXED IN SCOPUS

CALL FOR PAPERS VOLUME 6

About the AMTJ

The African Tax Administration Forum (ATAF) invites submissions for Volume 6 of the African Multidisciplinary Tax Journal (AMTJ), a peer-reviewed, Scopus-indexed publication dedicated to advancing applied research in tax policy, legislation, and administration across Africa.

The AMTJ publishes evidence-based research that informs tax policy and practice on the continent. It serves as a platform for academics, practitioners, and policymakers to advance tax thought leadership and share insights and innovative approaches that strengthen African tax systems and enhance domestic resource mobilisation (DRM). The Journal publishes articles in English, French, and Portuguese.

Why Publish with the AMTJ

- The AMTJ is indexed in Scopus, one of the world's leading academic databases, ensuring global visibility and academic credibility.
- Accessible to libraries and academics at leading universities worldwide.
- Access to a wide readership, including ATAF's 45-member tax administrations, international partners, and the broader policy community.
- Rigorous double-blind peer-review process, ensuring scholarly quality, originality, and policy relevance.

Submission Guidelines

Manuscripts should align with the AMTJ Author Guidelines, available on the AMTJ website here.

All submissions must be made via the AMTJ Online Submission Portal available here.

Important Dates

- Deadline for manuscript submission: 12 December 2025
- Publication Date: 1 July 2026

For additional information or queries, please contact:

- AMTJ Editor-in-Chief – Prof Uwuigbe Uwalomwa: amtj@ataftax.org
- AMTJ Journal Manager – Frank Kalizinje: fkalizinje@ataftax.org

Join us in shaping Africa's tax discourse and contributing to evidence-based policymaking through the AMTJ.