

Correction Captains' Association Supports

Thomas DiNapoli

for NEW YORK STATE COMPTROLLER

A Proven Champion for Working People

For years, New York State Comptroller Thomas DiNapoli has been a steadfast advocate for workers, retirees, and organized labor. As the sole trustee of one of the nation's largest public pension funds, he has consistently protected retirement security while using his office to promote responsible corporate practices and workers' rights. It's no surprise that labor organizations across New York continue to stand strongly behind his leadership.

Why the CCA Supports Thomas DiNapoli

- » Protecting Your Pension
Expertly manages the NYS Common Retirement Fund, one of the best-funded public pension systems in the nation, helping ensure retirement security for public employees.
- » Standing Up for Workers' Rights
Warned companies against union-busting and anti-worker practices.
- » Using Shareholder Power for Good
Leverages the state pension fund's influence to advocate for fair labor practices, responsible corporate governance, and respect for workers.
- » Holding Employers Accountable
Helped identify ways to strengthen enforcement of labor laws, including investigations into wage theft and child labor violations.
- » A Consistent Voice for Working Families
Record of supporting policies that protect workers, strengthen retirement security, and promote economic fairness throughout the state.
- » Trusted by Organized Labor
Consistently endorsed by the NYS AFL-CIO, and numerous public and private sector unions across New York.
