

Jesse Vigil – Bio

Jesse Vigil is a licensed architect at Cushing Terrell, specializing in private residences, restaurants, hospitality, and resort communities. He launched his career after receiving a Master's Degree from Montana State University and soon relocated to Missoula.

Jesse enjoys immersing himself in understanding how people live and experience different spaces. As a client advocate and problem solver, he approaches every challenge as an opportunity to learn.

Outside of work, Jesse spends time fishing, hiking, or hunting in the Montana outdoors with his wife and two sons
