CAPTAIN:

Matt Tucker (Kansas City, MO): Matt is the owner of a Medical Cannabis Business based out of Duncan, OK and has been operating every since it was legalized 7 years ago. Through his business Matt oversees the cultivation, processing, distribution, and sales of medical cannabis. Matt is also in property and life insurance and has certifications in pipeline transmission. Matt grew up hunting is whole life, upland, waterfowl, turkey, and deer. However, he relocated from Austin, TX to Kansas City, MO and now his new hobbies consist of golf, Chiefs and Royals events, wood working and his new favorite hobby, shoveling snow! Best of all, Matt has a wife, Katie, and a son with their second son on the way! Matt was quoted saying "I can't wait for the day I share my first covey rise with my son's!"

TEAM MEMBERS:

Justin Yule (Austin, TX): Justin is a Retired Business Professional of 25+ years. Justin was the owner and operator of his company that specialized in Medical Equipment and Supplies. In 2020, Justin sold the company and transitioned into retirement. Justin says he enjoys every chance he gets to enjoy the outdoors and that is evident with the passion he has for waterfowl, and upland game hunting, and saltwater fishing. You will find Justin saying he is happiest with a gun or fishing rod in his hands! Justin is NRA Certified and volunteers his time coaching the Hill Country Clay Shooters. Justin enjoys spending his time with his wife of 22 years, Jamee, and his two kids!

Andy Tucker (Oklahoma City, OK): Andy is the Manager of a Family Trust Management Company utilizing his knowledge he's gained over 10 years to help out families. Andy spent 34 years with the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Services as an Economic Development Manager as well. He has a BS from Oklahoma State University in Agriculture, and he is a Certified Economic Developer. Andy volunteers his time by serving as a Board Member on the Seminole State College Foundation, being on a committee for the Lt. Governor Invitational Turkey Hunt, Grand National Dog Handler, and a Life Member of the Nebraska One Box Pheasant Hunt! Andy spends time upland hunting and fishing outside of work and volunteering. Andy and his wife had 3 children, and now have 4 grandchildren with another on the way!

Luke Tucker (Austin, TX): Luke is a Principal Product Manager for Procore Technologies where he currently focuses on construction technology, but has experience in working on product and corporate strategy in early and growth stage software companies. Outside of work Luke is passionate about saltwater flyfishing, quail hunting, and Brazilian Jiu Jitsu! Most of Luke's time is spent right where it should be though, at home with his wife, Madison, and his two sons.

Joshua Grogis (Norman, OK): Joshua currently serves as Senior Advisor to the Chairman for the House Committee on Appropriations, Tom Cole. Prior to his current role, Joshua served as Chief of Staff for Tom Cole. Joshua has previous experience in the real estate and land development industry and he is Co-Founder of a public affairs and lobbying firm. Joshua has dedicated much of his professional career in this political landscape becoming an expert in multiple different fields. Outside of work Joshua enjoys spending time with his wife, Jessica, and their daughter and three Weimaraner's!
