IN LOVING MEMORY OF

ANNE BROWN

1 OCTOBER 1942 ~ 23 OCTOBER 2026

Goodbye to my beautiful Grandma,
I will forever miss you.
Goodbye to my Grandma who always tucked me in so tight and always wished that the bed bugs wouldn't bite.
Goodbye to my Grandma who taught me how to make the most delicious orange cake.
Goodbye to my Grandma who always had
the patience to teach me anything.
Who taught me to love, love animals,
love music, love flowers, love birds and love laughter.
Goodbye to the most brave and strong person I know.
Forever cherished in our hearts.
