

Think of Stu at Sunset, cheers.

Thank you for your attendance to farewell Stuart today.

Please join the family for refreshments in the McCubbin Room following this time of reflection on Stuart's life.

Stuart was a skilled printer, a licensed forklift driver,
Magpie and St Kilda devotee, and a loyal, fun and witty friend.
In lieu of flowers, Stuart asked us to kindly consider a donation to www.thesmithfamily.com.au or www.cancer.org.au to prevent lung cancer.

A Celebration of the life of Stuart Christopher Ratcliffe

17 September 1968 - 3 January 2026

Order of Service

The Gift of Life

Take some time from your busy day to stop and smell the flowers
See how the grass and the tree-tops shine
After cooling, Summer, showers.
Don't you let your life rush by Just stop and look around Listen to the birds on a sunny day there's beauty in their sound.
The gift of life was given to you
So don't let it pass you by Live each day and treasure every minute
You can do it if you try.
There's mystery in the ocean
And there's rainbows in the sky
So, make the most of it while you can
You can't take it when you die.
