In Loving Memory of
Dr Thomas Vadil
(1934 – 2025)

Thomas Vadil was born into the Valakodiyil family of Elamkulam, Kerala. Thomas was a man of deep intellect, unwavering faith, and quiet strength. Rosamma, his devoted life partner, hails from the Erattu family of Vadasserikara, Kerala. Together, they built a life rooted in love, learning, and service.

Thomas pursued academic excellence with unwavering passion. He earned a Doctorate in Sacra Theologia from the Pontificia University in 1972, followed by a Master of Library Science from Rutgers University, USA. His scholarly pursuits were matched by a distinguished professional career — most notably as Associate Head of Business Information and Database Management at RMIT — where he mentored countless students and colleagues.

Thomas will be remembered for his wisdom, humility, and the quiet dignity with which he lived his life. His legacy lives on in the hearts of all who knew him, and in the values he imparted to his family and community.
