REMEMBERING TONY

Tony was a man of unwavering kindness, quiet strength and generous spirit. Alongside his gentle nature was a quick wit and unmistakable laugh that brought warmth and joy to those around him.

Tony had a remarkable ability to lead without ego, to teach without judgement and to care without expectation. He listened more than he spoke, celebrated the achievements of others before his own, and carried himself with a humility that inspired deep admiration from everyone fortunate enough to know him.

Beyond his professional achievements, Tony's greatest pride was always his family. A devoted husband to Robyn, a loving father to Emily, Andrew, Michael and Lucy, and a proud grandfather, he created a home filled with generosity, laughter and unconditional love. He was a steadfast brother, a trusted friend and a calming presence to everyone fortunate enough to know him.

His legacy cannot be measured simply by the countless lives he helped save.

It lives on in every paramedic he mentored.

In every student he inspired.

In every colleague he encouraged.

In every patient whose life was changed by his compassion.

And most of all, it lives on in the family he loved so completely.

Today we celebrate a life of extraordinary service, enduring kindness and unconditional love.

A life that leaves an immeasurable legacy.

A life that mattered.
