St. Augustine Hymnal: 892

Quote of the Week

*Help us to embrace your will,
Give us the strength to follow your call,
So that your truth may live in our hearts
And reflect peace to those who believe in your love. ~ Roman Rite*

*Behold,
the Lamb of God,
who takes away the
sin of the world.*

John 1:29

Saint Sebastian

DIED C. 288

FEAST DAY: JANUARY 20

According to the many legends surrounding Sebastian, he was born in Gaul and raised in Milan. Though a Christian, he joined the imperial army at Rome about 283. He made converts of officials and jailers, effected cures and urged Christian prisoners to stay strong in their faith. He was named captain of the praetorian guards, but the emperor, upon finding out that he was a Christian, ordered his execution. Shot with arrows and left for dead, Sebastian survived and was nursed back to life. Later, he denounced the emperor for his cruelty to Christians, and the emperor had him beaten to death. A favorite subject of Renaissance artists, Sebastian is the patron saint of archers, soldiers and athletes.

Fact of Faith

What Is Ordinary Time?

The end of the Christmas season was marked by the Baptism of the Lord, and we have now moved into the season of Ordinary Time. Despite its name, there is nothing inherently “ordinary” about this season of the year. The term ordinary is just used because the weeks are numbered in an ordinal way—the Third Week in Ordinary Time, the Fourth Week in Ordinary Time, and so on.

Ordinary Time is broken into two blocks, before and after the Lent and Easter seasons. Lent, which begins on Ash Wednesday, is a 40-day season of repentance and renewal before the celebration of the Easter season, which lasts even longer than Lent (about 50 days). The Easter Season goes from the Easter Vigil to the celebration of Pentecost. The timing of the Lent and Easter seasons is based on the cycles of the moon.

During Ordinary Time, we honor the mystery of Christ, especially on Sundays, though we do not focus on just one aspect of the mystery during the season. It is a time to reflect on Jesus’s life, teachings, and parables.

“We honor the mystery of Christ.”

Liturgical calendars were not always structured this way. In the earliest days of the Church, every Sunday was treated as an Easter Sunday—there was no distinction in the season for Christmas, Lent, and Easter. While we no longer treat every Sunday as Easter Sunday, “Sunday is the preeminent day for the liturgical assembly” (CCC, No. 1167). In addition to participating in the Eucharistic liturgy, in Ordinary Time, Sundays remain days that should be set aside for prayer, reflection, rest, and time with family.

For more information, go to www.usccb.org, and search for the term “liturgical calendar.”

Sunday Table Discussion:

Ask your children at breakfast or dinner to repeat, as best they can, what the priest has preached in the Sunday homily and what the readings were about. This is one way to encourage children to pay attention to the word of God.

Depending on the age of the children this activity can be modified to fit each individual family.

Smaller children can be given a simple retelling of the Gospel and then be asked to comment or answer a couple of easy questions.

Older children can have the opportunity to present their own reflections on the Gospel and its application to their life.

This activity can be as short or long as desired but it will help to emphasize the importance of the Sunday readings.
