Sunday Readings—p. 1188

6 For Padre Pio, faith was life: he willed everything and did everything in the light of faith. He was assiduously devoted to prayer. He passed the day and a large part of the night in conversation with God. He would say: 'In books we seek God, in prayer we find him. Prayer is the key which opens God's heart.'

THE BOOK OF AMOS

The ephah and the shekel were units for measuring volume and weight in ancient Israel. Discover what you can about the ancient Jewish system of weights and measures. For example, was there another unit larger than an ephah, or smaller? For each of the units you discover, find what the modern equivalent would be. For example, what would a shekel be in pounds and ounces?

Saint Pio of Pietrelcina "Padre Pio"

1887-1968

FEAST DAY — SEPTEMBER 23

Francesco Forgione was born in the Italian farming village of Pietrelcina on May 25, 1887. He was one of seven children. By age five, Francesco had already dedicated his life to God. He helped take care of his family's flock of sheep until age ten. Then, as a requirement for joining the Capuchin order, he received private tutoring, to make up for the time he had spent shepherding, rather than in school. At age fifteen, he joined the Order of Friars Minor, taking the name "Pio."

As a Capuchin Franciscan friar, he experienced both physical illness and spiritual battles, but persevering, he was ordained a priest in 1910. Due to poor health, he stayed mostly with his family until 1916, when he was required to return to the friary.

During World War I, he was drafted to serve in the Italian army in the medical corps in 1914/5, and again in 1917. Both times, illness prevented him from continuing in the service; the second time, he was given a permanent discharge. When he left the service, he returned to the friary of San Giovanni Rotondo, where he remained for the duration of his life.

Friar Pio became known to many as Padre Pio. He bore the stigmata, or wounds of Christ, invisibly from the time of his ordination in 1910 and visibly from 1918. The Vatican investigated the authenticity of his stigmata, and his ministry of prayer and healing, beginning in 1921. As his renown grew, so did persecution. In 1922, various restrictions were placed on his ministry, including being forbidden from giving blessings to the faithful. In 1931, he was forbidden from publicly celebrating Mass, hearing confessions, and receiving visitors. This ban was lifted by the Pope Pius XI in 1933, and Padre Pio was allowed to gradually resume public ministry.

Padre Pio is known for being a gifted confessor, his efficacious intercessory prayer, and other mystical gifts associated with his religious life. Under the direction of Padre Pio, in 1947, construction began to build a hospital to treat patients at San Giovanni Rotondo, using science along with faith and prayer. Shortly before his death in 1968, the stigmata disappeared. He was canonized in 2002 by St. John Paul II. Pope Francis has called Padre Pio an "apostle of the confessional."

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

PREVIOUSLY – due to the extreme amount of special collections promoted by our diocese (16 special collections, not counting random disaster collections!) – we mostly contained them to the period of Lent and promulgated them all at once during that great season of almsgiving. The idea was that by limiting the frequency of special collections, we would avoid special collection burnout.

BUT NOW... we have a new Bishop who seems to agree that there were too many special collections. Bishop Bullock has now limited the ordinary special collections to only the following nine:

Catholic Social Services	Ash Wednesday
Black & Indian Mission	4 th Sunday of February
Holy Land	Good Friday
Catholic Home Missions	4 th Sunday of April
Catholic Communications	3 rd Sunday of May
Peter's Pence	4 th Sunday of June
Newman Center Appeal	4 th Sunday of September
Annual Diocesan Appeal	3 rd Sunday of November
Retirement for Religious	2 nd Sunday of December

Starting today, we will follow this diocesan calendar for special collections.

NEWMAN CENTER PARTNERSHIP APPEAL

I hereby promote the special collection for the Newman Center Appeal. Our very own Lany LaPlante attends the Newman Center in Spearfish. When asked what she thought of it she responded: "Bruh, it's the best." So, to all the bros out there (please note: there does not seem to be a feminine address in modern slang lingo, so a woman is a bruh as well), please consider giving to this appeal. I served at the Newman Center in Spearfish and can personally testify to the great impact it has to fortify the Faith of our college students.

The ministry of the Word is a fundamental element of evangelization through all its stages because it involves the proclamation of Jesus Christ, the eternal Word of God...

The Word of God nourishes both evangelizers and those who are being evangelized so that each one may continue to grow in his or her Christian life.

Priesthood Sunday this year falls on

September 28, 2025

Priesthood Sunday is traditionally observed on the fourth Sunday in September. It is a special day set aside to honor the priesthood. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the priesthood in the life of the Church as a central one. Pray for our priests, pray for vocations, thank our priests.
