Sunday Readings—p. 1184

Quote of the Week

"If Christ is with me, whom shall I fear? Though the waves and the sea and anger of princes are aroused me, they are less to me than a spider's web" (cf. Ps 27).

St. John Chrysostom

*I*n the same way, everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.

Luke 14:33

Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary

FEAST DAY—SEPTEMBER 8

The details of Mary's birth are unknown. Her parents, not mentioned in the Bible, are called Joachim and Anne in the apocryphal Gospel of James. This book claims that Joachim went into the desert to lament their childlessness and learned in a vision or dream that he and Anne would have a daughter. Ancient traditions put Mary's birth in Nazareth or Jerusalem. The feast of her birth originated in the East; in the seventh century, Pope St. Sergius I ordered that it and three other Marian feasts, the Annunciation, Purification and Assumption, be celebrated in Rome. This feast is another sign of God's faithfulness to old and new covenant promises that were fully realized in Mary's son, Jesus Christ.

23rd Sunday of Ordinary Time Cycle Yr C

Sheila, a fifth grade teacher's 8-year old daughter, wanted a puppy and she was begging at every opportunity and promising to take care of it. Knowing full well it would end up being her responsibility, the teacher made arrangements with her brother to dog-sit for a week while he was on vacation. The first few days went pretty well, but by the fourth day 'doggy fatigue' was setting in. It seems that the young dog enthusiast failed to account for multiple daily walks, feedings, bathing, playtime and 'cleaning up.' At the end of the week, Sheila informed her mom that she had changed her mind and would prefer goldfish instead.

Faith is a commitment to a way of life, not just a set of intellectual beliefs. More than just accepting the idea that Jesus is the Savior, faith means that we change so that we live by God's standards, even when it is demanding, inconvenient or difficult. Our values and morals are the foundation of our lives and if we compromise them, we compromise our life, both temporal and eternal.

We live our faith when we follow the teaching and example of Jesus. Plus we have the Church, the sacraments, the example of the saints and the support of one another—all of which are part of our community of faith that lives and supports our baptismal commitment to follow the Lord. There is no 'faith fatigue.' Our God and our faith renew and strengthen us as we journey together.
