What on Earth Am I Here For?

- The Purpose-driven Life
  - An aim, objective that guides your behavior, pulls you into the future and gives meaning to your life.
  - Purpose acts as a guiding light, helping you set meaningful goals, make decisions aligned with your values, and stay focused amidst life's inevitable challenges.
  - Purpose provides direction, focus, motivation, and a sense of personal fulfilment.
- What is your purposes in your life? How would you discover them for your life?
  - You can find your life purpose only from your Creator, God, because He made you on purpose. If you want to know your purpose, the wisest way to find it is to ask God. In addition, the Bible is the owner's manual that addresses this issue very clearly.
  - Based on God's Great Command and Great Commission, you may identify five purposes for your life.

Five Purposes

The Great Commandment
Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself (Matthew 22:36-39).

The Great Commission
Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you (Matthew 28:19-20)

1. Worship
   - Love the Lord your God with all your heart
2. Ministry/Service
   - Love your neighbor as yourself
3. Evangelism/Mission
   - Go and make disciples
4. Fellowship
   - Baptizing them
5. Discipleship
   - Teaching them to obey

You Were Made for a Mission

- Christians are sent into the world
  - The word 'mission' comes from the Latin word (missio) for 'sending.'
  - You are a representative of Jesus when he said, "as the Father has sent me, I am sending you" (John 20:21).
- Jesus' life mission on earth
  - 12 year's old: "I must be about my father's mission" (Luke 2:49, KJV).
  - 33 year's old: "It is finished" (John 19:30).
- Paul was sent
  - I am sending you to them to open their eyes and turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God (Acts 26:17-18).
- God asks you to continue the mission
  - You are the messenger of God's love and purposes to the world.
  - We speak for Christ (2 Corinthians 5:20, NLT).

My Real Identity: Who I Am?

- You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything... You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden (Matthew 5:13-16).
- But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light (1 Peter 2:9).
- The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children. Now if we are children, then we are heirs—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ... (Romans 8:16–17)
- Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here! (2 Corinthians 5:17).
- Do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price (1 Corinthians 6:19-20).
- For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do (Ephesians 2:10).
- You are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with God's people and also members of his household (Ephesians 2:19).

You are Ambassadors for Christ

- You are Christ's ambassador
  - All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting people's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God. God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God (2 Corinthians 5:18-21).
- Ambassador
  - A person sent by the government of a country to a different country who is the official representative of their country.
  - You are sent by God for Christ.

Ambassadors for Christ (AFC)

- Great Commission
  - Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you (Matthew 28:19-20).
- Roles of AFC
  - To fulfill this Great Commission, AFC must engage in three key steps: (1) going, (2) baptizing, and (3) teaching. Rather than happening all at once, these activities unfold sequentially and represent the primary duty of every ambassador for Christ.
  - Go stage: AFC step outside the walls of the church to connect with unchurched individuals within the broader community.
  - Baptizing stage: as AFC welcome them into the church family, they become active members through baptism.
  - Teaching stage: through well-designed discipleship programs, they grow continually in their spiritual walk.
  - This workshop will equip AFC with sound skills and competencies to cultivate believers within your congregation/ministry, helping them mature into faithful servants.

6 Circles of Targets

The Importance of Your Mission

- Your mission is a continuum of Jesus' mission on earth
  - Jesus calls you not only to come to him, but to go for him.
- Your mission is a wonderful privilege
  - All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation (2 Corinthians 5:18).
- Your mission has eternal significance. Telling others how they can have eternal life is the greatest thing you can do for them
  - As long as it is day, we must do the works of him who sent me. Night is coming, when no one can work (John 9:4).
- Your mission gives your life meaning
  - My only aim is to finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me (Acts 20:24).
- God's timetable for history's conclusion is connected to the completion of your commission
  - This gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come (Matthew 24:14).
