

Greetings Saints of Emmanuel:

Judgment is coming. Christ the King is coming.

This coming Sunday marks the end of the church year. We have been hearing in worship the Scriptures which speak of Christ's coming and of the end of all things. We will press further in Bible Study about this end, by immediately beginning a Bible Study on Daniel in December.

Beginning in Advent, we'll transition to the one-year lectionary, which help us build a repertoire of Scriptural memory over the next three years.

The Scriptures during Advent are also focused on Christ's coming. For Advent simply means coming, and so as we remember Christ's first coming at Christmas, so, too, we long for and expect his second coming on the Last Day.

Where we want to be is with him.

In Christ our Lord,
+ Pastor Justin Baker

Prayer List To Be Reset | Beginning Nov. 30th

On the first Sunday of Advent, in accordance with the beginning of the church year, we will reset prayer requests.

You'll need to let Michele Hiener know if you would like to include your loved one for the New Church Year. Going forward, we want to include more details so that our congregation can better pray for those on this list (long-term illness, hospitalization, short-term illness, physical pain, etc.). There will, of course, be a "catch-all" for those who need absolute privacy. This will likely take a little time to get right, but this will help us all to pray more clearly for those in need.

Worship

Worship at Brookdale | this Friday, Nov. 21, 11AM

Our first Friday service at Brookdale is this Friday at 11am. Please join us then! We will continue to hold these services on the third Friday of every month at 11am, so mark your calendars!

Advent Setup | Nov. 29, 10AM

We need about six people to help take down Thanksgiving decorations, put up the first of our advent adornments, and install the nativity by the road. Please sign up in the narthex if you are able to help.

Confirmation Service for Faith Palmer | Nov. 30, The First Sunday in Advent

Faith Palmer will be confirmed on November 30th, the First Sunday in Advent. A brief reception will be held after the service to celebrate Faith and her new step in her Christian walk. Please plan to join us then!

And because it's the first Sunday in Advent, we'll begin our sanctuary adornment after the service!

Midweek Advent Services | Beginning Dec. 3

During Advent, we will hold a light dinner and a worship service every Wednesday night. The first of these will coincide with the ELCW's Advent Event, which is open to all (not just the women). And so, we will begin with hors d'oeuvres that evening at 6pm.

From Sunday's Sermon

But there is something else that must happen, too. The antichrist must come, and he will come with signs and wonders. He will do everything he can to deceive those who have believed the gospel of Jesus. He will seek worship that is only right to give to God. And many will be deceived by him. Indeed, just as there is the full number of those who will believe Jesus, so, too, there is a full number of those who will be deceived. But, another way to put it is this — the full number of those who want to be deceived will be deceived, the full number of those who want to practice evil will believe their right to practice evil; the full number of those who seek to turn away from God will turn from him.

Whoever can be saved, will be saved; whoever refuses to be saved, will not be saved.

Perhaps the best analogy of what is coming can be described in terms of a solar eclipse. What is a solar eclipse? It is when the sun is eclipsed by the moon — where the sun's light is blocked and so all that can be seen is darkness. This is who the antichrist is — a dark and evil man, who seeks to block the radiance and brilliance of Christ. As the end of this age draws to an end, the full darkness that will be is embodied in the antichrist, who, again, tries to take the brilliance and radiance of Christ for himself.

But just as a solar eclipse is but for a moment, so, too, will the time of the antichrist be — temporary, finite, limited, quick. And — though evil will be at its worst, yet still the light of Christ will pierce through even this blackest blanket of darkness.

Daniel Bible Study

Starting December 1st

Bible Study in Acts | Mondays, 1PM & 6:30PM

Bible Study Changing from Acts to Daniel

We'll have our final Acts Bible Study this Monday, November 24th. Then we'll immediately begin a study on the book of Daniel. (When we finish Daniel in the Spring, we'll return to Acts.)

Mark your calendars!

11/24: Acts Bible Study, 1pm and 6:30pm
12/1: Daniel Bible Study, 1pm and 6:30pm
12/8: Daniel Bible Study, 1pm and 6:30pm
12/15: Daniel Bible Study, 1pm and 6:30pm
Beginning 12/22: Holiday Break

From Acts 7:51-8:1a

Stephen concludes his sermon by revealing to his accusers that just as their forefathers rejected Moses, so, too, they have rejected the Christ. Rather than being cut to the heart in repentance, they are enraged and stone him to death. This is how we come to know Stephen as the first Christian martyr.
