

Greetings Saints of Emmanuel:

The Advent of our King is at hand. With the beginning of the church year, we renew our focus to hoping that Christ will return in this church year year.

Ever since I came to know that our legal name is Emmanuel Evangelical Lutheran Church, I have wondered if it's not worth reviving our full name. Names mean something, and ours is quite robust, directional, and missional.

The first name, Emmanuel, as we are reminded especially during Advent, means God with us. This is God's promise to his people, first fulfilled in the coming of Jesus as a baby. He also promised never to leave nor forsake us. And so, Emmanuel reminds us who God is and what he is promised. He is and will be with us.

It is also worth noting that it's good that this name comes first, as who God is and what he has promised -- over against what we may desire or think -- is of first importance. Think back to the first commandment: "I am the Lord your God." We are to love, worship, and put God above all things.

The second name, Evangelical, has come to have many meanings, but from the very beginning meant having to do with the good news. Evangelical is from the same root word from which we get gospel. And so, you may be beginning to see why this second name may be worthy of reviving. We want to be God's people and about his good news.

Isn't it so easy to be a people about other news (good and bad) in this culture? Isn't it almost difficult to not be bearers of bad or unworthy news? And yet, we are the heralds of the best news that ever could have come to have been.

And the beginning of this good news (beyond the very good news that He has made the whole creation) is that God has come to us -- and as an infant in the womb of Mary!

In Christ our Lord,
+ Pastor Justin Baker

From Sunday's Sermon

How much is an innocent life worth? How much is the life of the innocent Son of God worth? What power does his sacrifice have? As innocent, as Man, as the Son of God, his sacrifice can never be tapped, for it is uncountably infinite, immeasurable, overflowing — pouring out into the hearts and minds and bodies of those whom he saves.

The Crucifixion reveals that God deeply, powerfully desires to be with his people. And this Sacrifice of Jesus also reveals something fundamental to God's very being, to who God is — his sacrifice is not an exception, it's the rule. Who God is is to be sacrificial, is to give of Himself. Indeed, is this not what He has done from the very beginning, from Creation itself? Wasn't Him creating the cosmos itself sacrificial? Didn't He pour himself out in the very making of the world and of us? And yet, when God pours Himself out, that does not make him less God, or less than He was before — for this is his very nature. Because who He is is to pour Himself out for the sake of those whom He loves.

From Acts 8:1-8

Almighty God is not reliant on the faithfulness of his people to accomplish his will. Here, precisely the opposite takes place — the faithlessness of the priests, the rulers, of the crowd, and of Saul results in the gospel spreading exactly to where it was always going to go next — to Judea and Samaria.
