ROLL OF HONOUR 2026_

Meet the new generation of Diana Award Recipients

THE 2026 DIANA AWARD ROLL OF HONOUR

This year's Diana Award Recipients represent some of the most inspirational young people from across the UK and around the world. These exceptional young people have demonstrated their ability to inspire and mobilise new generations to serve their communities and create long-lasting change on a global scale.

Please note: the ages and biographies featured in this Roll of Honour reflect the recipients' ages, activities and achievements at the time of nomination in October 2025. These may have since changed or developed.

Content warning: Diana Award Recipients address diverse, often personal experiences that may be difficult to read; click here for support if needed.

This roll of honour was empowered through a British Airways Crowdfunder by: Milan Paul Kumar BCyA; Dimitrios Varsamis; Hannah Walton; Cassandra Johnson, and Charles Combes

BELIEVENBOOKS_USA_18

Natasha Agarwal is passionate about ensuring that children have access to the books and educational opportunities they need to thrive. As the Founder and CEO of BelieveNBooks, she has helped distribute more than 250,000 books to 50,000 young people around the world. Natasha has developed a replicable book-drive model, established student-led collection sites and created a digital read-aloud initiative to make literacy resources more accessible. She has also authored a book designed to inspire girls in Africa. By working with schools and community organisations, Natasha continues to expand access to reading and learning.
