Coaching and Speech Giving

Having overcome a number of illnesses, injuries, addiction, and loss; I've gone through a lot and achieved a lot for a relatively short time on Earth. I've studied every science. I've studied most societies and histories. I've studied all of the tools of the world. Literally, geeked out on them. I can speak to living overseas and working with people overseas and over the internet. I like to give speeches on motivation for accomplishing a goal.
