The gospel this weekend is one of my favorite scripture passages. The account of the two disciples making their way to Emmaus; they were out on a walk— walks have a way of changing people. The time-honored pilgrimage or procession shapes the mind and heart of the walker! So, in today’s gospel we see how Jesus transforms those who walk with him along “the Way.” When the Risen Jesus is made known to them in the breaking of the bread, it is a total life change for them. They turned around, and they went back to Jerusalem filled with joy and ready to face the world. Their hearts are on “fire” and ready to go! We are people of “the Way.” When we join together, and when we meet strangers, we walk with Jesus—and he transforms our lives. I think, we sometimes can get tired from the dusty journey, but Jesus quietly enters our walk and refreshes us!

In some ways this happened via P-G High School Seniors when they texted and asked if they could stop over for a visit with their CCD teachers. I had a wonderful surprise when they arrived bearing gifts of food, heartfelt support and time to share my journey of faith/family with them. Thank You!

God Bless all of you as we share our faith walk together! Fr. Tom

VIRTUES, EXPLAINED! – CONNECT WITH TRADITION AND GROW YOUR FAITH
Temperance, Explained!

“For the grace of God has appeared bringing salvation to the entire human race...(teaching) us to reject godless ways and worldly desires,” reads Titus 2:11-12, “and in the present age to lead lives that are temperate, just and godly.”

This cardinal virtue of temperance is shown in the person who is master of his passions and his attachment to the world. “It ensures the will’s mastery over instincts and keeps desires within the limits of what is honorable,” we read in the Catechism (CCC 1809).

Temperance is not repression of feeling; it is an exercise of the will, a careful and calculated choice. In this way, temperance actually safeguards virtuous love, keeping it “whole and uncorrupted,” said St. Augustine. The practice of temperance is intimately linked to the virtue of chastity, which “protects the intimate center of the person...refusing to unveil what should remain hidden” (CCC 2521). ©LPi

P-G CCD 3rd graders have been learning how Jesus modeled the virtues of Temperance, Justice, Prudence and Fortitude. They know that using these virtues in their daily life can result in true happiness.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED
End of the World

What do Catholics believe about the end of the world?

We hear the phrase “the end of the world” casually today. Often in film or media, it means the end of civil society or the threat of human annihilation by natural disasters. For the Christian, our perspective is distinctly Christ-centered. Numerous times through the Gospel, Jesus notes that he will come again, even after he has ascended into heaven. The Church typically refers to this as the Second Coming of Jesus or the Latin “Parousia,” meaning “presence” or “arrival.”

We believe that Christ will come again, and at his Second Coming, temporal time will end. Human history will end, at least as we know it. However, it doesn’t mean that creation will be destroyed. The book of Revelation speaks of a renewal, indeed a “new heaven and a new earth” (Rev 21:1). Christ will come again in glory. Our souls will be reunited with our bodies. While our lives were judged individually at our deaths, which we call the particular judgment, something new will happen here. Theologians call it the general judgment or the last judgment, in which our deeds and the effects — for good or ill — will be known to all. For the early Christians, this second coming was hoped for! They knew it was the completion of God’s work of redemption for the human race. We, too, should pray with them, “Come Lord Jesus!” ©LPi

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Christ gave us everything. He gave us “happily ever after.” But what do you do with everything?

What do you do with “happily ever after?” What do you do with the Resurrection? What do you do with salvation?
