Please welcome Fr. Jerry Thury this weekend and next as I will be on vacation traveling to the N.E. coast of the USA taking in few historical sites as our Country celebrates its 250th anniversary. I'll be traveling with a brother priest/ seminary classmate--Or as he like to remind me, Monsignor! and a few former parishioners.

As we celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi, The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. We are reminded, once again, the depth and rich blessings the Eucharist is to us. We are all called to take an active part which includes lifting our voice in song, responding to the prayers led by the presiding priest, and taking seriously the other ministries which we have been called and volunteered for: serving, lector, usher, music, cantor, and Eucharistic lay minister at mass--the liturgy--the "work of the people". So, I thank all of you who have said yes to making the celebration of the Eucharist a wonderful celebration in our parishes. In a short article entitled: "Tremendous Value of the Holy Mass", I read: "By devoutly assisting at Holy Mass you render the greatest homage possible to the Sacred Humanity of Our Lord...During Holy Mass you kneel amid a multitude of holy Angles, who are present at the Adorable Sacrifice with reverential awe."

Later this week, June 11th, the US Bishops will consecrate the U.S.A. to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

God Bless – Fr. Tom

On the Occasion of the U.S. Bishops

Consecrating the United States of America to the Sacred Heart of Jesus O Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

You know the longings of our hearts, and you desire that we enjoy friendship with you. From your pierced side, you have poured out the wellspring of life, for which we thirst. Your heart burns with a love for all people to return to a right relationship with you. We celebrate the abundant gifts you have given this nation, founded on the self-evident truths that our Creator has endowed all people with the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We make reparation for the offenses against you and against human dignity that have taken place in this nation. May our hearts be united to yours, so that our families and communities enjoy peace and happiness; may broken relationships be reconciled, injustices repaired, and the wounds of our land be healed. May your holy Catholic Church serve as a sign, pointing all people to your infinite love. O Desire of Nations and Center of History, we ask you to bless these United States of America. Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen. Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us! Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us!

VIRTUES, EXPLAINED! – CONNECT WITH TRADITION AND GROW YOUR FAITH

Gratitude

How many of us have been told to "be grateful" when we look a little glum? But the truth is that gratitude is about more than just attitude. This virtue concerns our actions — how we carry ourselves in the world, how we behave toward other people, and how we submit to lawful authority.

"Gratitude answers to the moral debt," St. Thomas Aquinas writes (Sum., II:II, 106, Art. 1). We owe gratitude to those who have cared for us — children owe it to their parents in the form of respect (CCC 215) and citizens owe it to their country in the form of love and service (CCC 215).

The Eucharist is the most perfect act of gratitude. Appropriately, Jesus "gives thanks" for the bread at the Last Supper, just as we give thanks before the Eucharist — acknowledging God as the principal source of all that is good. ©LPi

GOSPEL MEDITATION

When I was a young altar server, I once overheard two very different comments about the Eucharist. One person asked, "Is Father distributing the bread or the wine?" Later, another asked, "Can you go get Jesus from the tabernacle?" Same parish, same Mass, but two very different ways of speaking. I pondered: So, is it bread that we pretend is Jesus? Or is Jesus a tiny white thing in a box? I was utterly confused.

This Feast of Corpus Christi is an excellent time to think about how we should speak about the Eucharist. In today's Gospel, Jesus declares: "My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink." (John 6:55) His words scandalized his listeners, who feared cannibalism, and even today puzzle many, who reduce them to metaphor. Both miss the truth.

The Church gives us better words that honor Jesus' words in the Gospel. After the consecration, we do not call it "bread" or "wine." Nor do we say, "a piece of Jesus" or even "Jesus." We say: the Eucharist. We say: the Body and Blood of Christ. We say: the Real Presence. We say: the Most Blessed Sacrament. These words safeguard the astonishing reality that Christ himself is truly present, whole and entire, under the appearances of bread and wine.

If we speak well about the Eucharist, we will think more clearly and believe more deeply. And if we believe more deeply, we will adore more truly the One who gives himself to us — not bread, not wine, but Jesus Christ himself, whole and entire. Father John Muir ©LPi

THE FIRE IN MANY IMAGES OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS REPRESENTS THE TRANSFORMATIVE POWER OF DIVINE LOVE.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED
Hearts of Jesus

Why do we celebrate the Hearts of Jesus in the month of June?

Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is an ancient practice. We can see its Scriptural origins in Jesus' own references to His Heart. "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest ... for I am meek and humble of heart" (c.f. Matthew 11:28, 29).

DID YOU KNOW?

THE AIM OF THE DEVOTION OF THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY IS TO UNITE HUMANKIND TO GOD THROUGH MARY'S HEART.

Seven Sisters

June 12th we will begin a Seven Sisters Apostolate to pray for Fr. Tom and his ministry. Seven Sisters commit to pray a Holy Hour for him each week in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, it need not be exposed. Each member prays on a distinct day of the week thus covering a complete week. The commitment is asked for a period of one year but can remain open ended. If you feel called to commit to a day or would like more information, contact Jenny Fay 605-770-3759 or visit the Seven Sisters Apostolate website. <https://sevensistersapostolate.org>
