QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

1st Reading Question: Our wisdom writer speaks of just souls resting peacefully in God’s loving hands. Can you think of a more peaceful image of death?

2nd Reading Question: Paul teaches the Romans that with Jesus’ resurrection, “death no longer has any power over him,” or us, as believers. Does this belief help you through times of grieving from the loss of a loved one?

Gospel Question: Jesus taught the crowds that anyone who believes in him will have eternal life and be raised from the dead on the last day. How do others know you believe in Jesus? ©LPi

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD;
THERE IS NOTHING
I SHALL WANT.

PSALM 23

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed
November 1-2, 2025

Entrance Antiphon

Just as Jesus died and has risen again, so through Jesus God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep; and as in Adam all die, so also in Christ will all be brought to life.

Responsorial Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Communion Antiphon

I am the Resurrection and the Life, says the Lord.
Whoever believes in me, even though he dies, will live,
and everyone who lives and believes in me will not die for ever.

NOVEMBER
PRAY FOR THE DEAD

MAY THE SOULS OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED,
THROUGH THE MERCY OF GOD, REST IN PEACE.

As we flip the calendar to November, we remember the faithful who have died and gone before us. This focus especially flows from the celebration of the solemnity of All Saints and All Souls Day, November 1st and 2nd. All Saints Day offered us a glimpse into the wonders of heaven. We were reminded of our connection with the WHOLE church those living on this earth and those who have died and gone before us—those in eternal glory--the saints--and those in Purgatory—the church in purgation. The Book of Revelation tells of heaven’s glory, of the brightly robed saints who bear the palm branches of eternal life, the Church Triumphant. On All Souls, which we celebrate this year for the Sunday liturgies, is where we pray in a special way for all the souls of the faithfully departed, that they may be welcomed into eternal glory of heaven: “Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.” Please remember the souls of the parishioners who have died in the last year.

St. Ann: Raymond Mushitz, Clint Knudson, Loretta Larson

St. Peter the Apostle: Frank Larsen, Connie Peterson, Arnie Hanten, Doug Peterson

St. Mark: Carol Durham, Michael Snyder, Betty Bruner, Michael Kirwan, Edwin Bruner, Tima Dangel

The Book of Deceased will remain in the sanctuary, please feel free to enter the names of your loved ones who died.

Rejoice with the Communion of the Saints – Fr. Tom

This week is National Vocation Awareness Week: Please lift in prayer the current seminarians (15) and those in religious formation (18) at various stages studying for our Diocese or religious communities as they discern their vocation. This year one of the Operation Andrew Dinner (men) and the Mari-am Dinner (women) will be held at the USD Newman Center on Monday, November 24th. The dinner and conversation are a great opportunity Sophomores in high school and older who may be thinking about priesthood or religious life. Please, contact Fr. Tom if this is for you!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Resurrection of the Dead

What do Catholics believe about the resurrection of the dead?

Every Sunday, we proclaim in the Creed that we believe “in the resurrection of the body.” Does that mean Christ’s resurrection or our own? Both! Jesus’ resurrection is part of the work of salvation, but it’s also a sign of what’s to come. While death separates our bodies and our souls, this was not the intention of God when He first created us. It’s an effect of original sin. At the end of time, our bodies and our souls will be reunited.

Scientifically, we may have questions about this, since bodies decompose over the course of centuries. Or what about the saints, whose relics are spread around the earth? How the resurrection will happen is a mystery. But we know that our resurrected body will be our body. If we are in heaven, our body will be in a glorified state. Some theologians speculate what this glorification will be like based on Jesus’ resurrected body. Will we be able to walk through walls? Will we eat, since Jesus broke bread with his disciples? We don’t really know the answers to these questions. We do know, however, that we will be free from the effects of the fall (such as sickness and pain) and physical defects that occurred in life. Christ redeems us as whole persons, body and soul! ©LPi

DEVOTIONS, EXPLAINED!

Prayer for the Dead

God is not subject to the constrictions of time as we understand them. Our prayers for the dead are, like our prayers for the living, an expression of charity and the unity which exists between all members of the Body of Christ. ©LPi

GOSPEL MEDITATION: I lost my wallet this year. It was such an annoyance to replace everything in it. A friend, moved by sympathy, gave me a beautiful new one. One month later I lost that one, too, with all my newly replaced cards. No matter what I did, I couldn’t find what I had lost. I resigned myself to never seeing either of my wallets again.

Fortunately, the Lord Jesus is not like me in this regard. In today’s Gospel (John 6:37–40), he says, “This is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me.” Jesus, unlike me, is ever vigilant with what the Father has given him. He searches for every lost soul — as the shepherd leaves the ninety-nine to pursue the one lost sheep, or the woman rejoices upon recovering a lost coin — and even descends to the depths of loss on the cross and into the realm of the dead to recover that which seems forever lost.

On All Souls’ Day, as we remember our faithful departed, these words kindle a hope beyond hope in our hearts. Even the dead are not lost to Jesus, though they may seem so to us. Nothing entrusted to him by the Father is ever truly lost. So, we may hope that every soul, no matter how wandering or forgotten in life, is secure in his loving care and destined to be raised on the last day. Of what the Father gives him, he loses nothing. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Prayer During Loss

O God, in the midst of my grief, be with me. Cover this season with Your comfort and consolation, help me to know Your presence and Your grace. Bring comfort to my affliction and hope to my heart. Amen

Holy Apostles Pastorate will be starting a "Cradle Catholics Class" designed for people who have been Catholic since birth but want to do a deeper dive into their faith. We will explore topics that YOU want to cover, such as the sacraments, Mary, the Saints, Catholic Catechism material, etc. The purpose of this is to allow you to have a richer and deeper knowledge and love for the faith which you profess, and to assist you in answering questions from your non-Catholic friends. If you didn't register ahead of time, don't worry. Just come and bring a Catholic friend. We will meet once a month and will cover the same topic each month at the three trios of parishes. The gatherings will begin at 6 PM and last approximately one hour. Feel free to bring your supper with you. The first one will begin THIS WEDNESDAY NIGHT, NOVEMBER 5TH! If you have further questions, please contact Sr. Maribeth Wentzlaff at 605-760-5295. Here is the schedule of the rotation: 1st Wed of each month: Ss Peter & Paul, Dimock 2nd Wed of each month: St. Peter the Apostle, Platte 3rd Wed of each month: St. John the Baptist, Wagner

The Wake service is Monday, November 3rd at 7PM.

"Tree of Giving and Thanks"

A tree is set up in the entrance. On the tree are many tags; take one or more, whatever you wish. The requested items are on the back of the tag (give what is asked or more). Let's fill the totes!! Thank you for your generous donation to our local food pantry.

“Why don’t skeletons play music in church?”

“Because they have no organs!”

FUN FACT!

Catholics remember the holy souls in purgatory every November. Take some time to pray for those who have died... and to pray with those in heaven!

Human Services Center in Yankton is reaching out for donations of gifts or money for Christmas for the patients. Many are far from their families during this season. No glass, cans, mirrors or anything with peanuts or caffeine per hospital policies. If possible, they need donations by Dec 5th. Used items will not be used as gifts.

St. Paul the Apostle Parish in Armour Fall Roast Beef Supper is Sunday Nov 2nd from 4-7 PM. Meals to Go, Silent Auction and movies in the lower level.

CATHOLIC TRIVIA : How many days did Jesus remain on earth after his Resurrection?

“EVERYTHING, EVEN SWEEPING, SCRAPING VEGETABLES, WEEDING A GARDEN, AND WAITING ON THE SICK COULD BE A PRAYER, IF OFFERED TO GOD.”

—ST. MARTIN DE PORRES
