Welcome to Fr. Jim Friedrich as we have our rotation this weekend. Sunday, September 7th is also the day when Pope Leo XIV will preside over the Mass and canonizations of the two young blesseds. Carlo Acutis (1991-2006), known for his devotion to the Eucharist and use of digital media to promote Catholic devotion, and Pier Giorgio Frassati (1901-1925), known for being a passionate Catholic layman, social activist, and mountain climber. This will air live at 3 a.m. ET and the encore presentation will be at 6 p.m. ET.

Also, please know that the Holy Apostles Leadership Team (clergy, office manager, administrative assistant, facilities manager, and the Director of Discipleship/Evangelization will be taking part in a workshop at Broom Tree Retreat Center Monday afternoon to Wednesday afternoon. This is part of the Set Ablaze as we navigate through present times of restructuring and look forward to the future. In the Gospel we heard: "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross and follow me...What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? ... Take up your cross and following me!" -- the cost of Discipleship! Blessings on your week! - Fr. Tom

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

What Happens if a Host is Dropped?

What happens if someone drops a consecrated host?

Despite our best efforts, and this is as true in our liturgical celebrations as in all of life, accidents happen. Occasionally at Mass, a host may be dropped or some of the Precious Blood could even be spilled from the chalice, despite the best efforts of the priests, deacons, and extraordinary ministers of holy Communion assisting at the liturgy.

So, when a host is dropped or the Precious Blood is spilled, we can take guidance from the U.S. Bishops' statement Norms for the Distribution for Holy Communion Under Both Kinds:

All ministers of Holy Communion should show the greatest reverence for the Most Holy Eucharist by their demeanor, their attire, and the manner in which they handle the consecrated bread or wine. Should there be any mishap — as when, for example, the consecrated wine is spilled from the chalice — then the affected "area . . . should be washed with water, and this water should be then poured into the sacrarium."

According to no. 280 of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, the general rule is that a dropped host is picked up by the minister distributing Communion and reverently consumed. The minister should be careful to make sure that no other particles from the host remain on the ground. As we see in the instruction from the bishops, the Precious Blood would be absorbed (customarily with a purificator) and the area attentively and reverently washed with water which would then be disposed of properly.

DEVOTIONS, EXPLAINED!

Lectio Divina

Lectio divina ("divine reading") is a practice of praying through the reading of Scripture, opening oneself to the inspiration and communication of the Holy Spirit.

The practice of Lectio divina dates to ancient monastic communities, but it has gained popularity in modern times as a way to meaningfully engage with the word of God.

The formula for Lectio divina is simple and follows four steps. The text of the Scripture is read (lectio) multiple times, and the reader takes note of any words or phrases that resonate with him in a particular way. The reader then reflects deeply on the passage (meditatio) and the words that he noticed, turning them over in his mind. Following this, the reader prays with the passage (oratio), and dialogues with God, inviting him to illuminate the reader's understanding of the text. Finally, there is rest and contemplation

SEEK GOD'S LOVE

LIVE THE LITURGY

Today, Jesus tells us the cost of true discipleship - and it turns out, it's everything. We must reject the world in order to love God. What attachments are holding us back from the relationship we could have — we should have — with our Lord?

Tradition says that Mary's parents were named Anne and Joachim. They are the patron saints of grandparents, since they were Jesus' grandparents!
