Article of the month

Guidelines for Supportive Parents

by Rutgers University

We believe success is about more than wins and losses—it's about helping athletes grow as players and people.

This article encourages parents to focus on effort, skill development, resilience and open communication while allowing coaches to coach and athletes to learn through both successes and challenges. Research shows that when young athletes feel supported rather than pressured, they are more likely to enjoy the game, build confidence, and stay involved in sports long-term.

"Children become the messages they hear most. Our athlete's parents are the voice they hear most. Every bit of work you do can be undone in minutes on the car ride home."

— Jim Taylor

Season Notifications and Resources

- Chat features and push notifications can and should be turned on by selecting "Account" > "Settings" in PlayMetrics. PlayMetrics is our only contact method during the season and where all updates and announcements will be posted from directors and coaches.
- ALL club resources/helpful links will be available on our website, in PlayMetrics or in the newsletters.

Reminders...

- Takes No Talent (TNT)
 - As part of our club initiative, we believe highly in supporting athletes and their mental health. Coach Quanda has taken time and energy putting together this program for both of our athletes and coaches.
 - We ask that athletes and parents buy into this initiative as best as they can to help the overall performance of their athlete and the team.
- NON-NEGOTIABLES FOR THIS SEASON
 - Athletes MUST communicate to coaches through PlayMetrics if they will be late/leaving early/not attending a tournament or practice BEFORE start time.
 - Athletes WILL sit the first set if arriving to a tournament late with no communication. Other consequences will be added if necessary by the coaches.
 - Athletes will have an Infinity specific form to take with them to the doctor when they are injured that needs to be signed from their primary care provider and returned to the coaches before returning to play.
 - 24 HOUR RULE: No parents should be confronting coaches regarding playing time, lineup decisions or grievances during tournaments. Coaches will remind you of a 24-Hour Rule and you can speak to them then.
